Atchley, 1999 A celebration of the distinguished career of one of the major figures in gerontology I highly recommend and encourage its adoption in advanced undergraduate and graduate gerontology courses Contemporary Gerontology Positive Aging Workbook Robert D Hill, 2008-06-03 Practical exercises and information in a workbook complement to Positive Aging A companion to Robert D Hill's highly regarded Positive Aging this practical workbook offers effective useful strategies to promote well being and successful aging Spiritual

Dimensions of Ageing Malcolm Johnson, Joanna Walker, 2016-11-24 Our understandings of both ageing and spirituality are changing rapidly in the twenty first century and grasping the significance of later life spirituality is now crucial in the context of extended longevity Spiritual Dimensions of Ageing will inform and engage those who study or practise in all fields that relate to the lives of older people especially in social psychological and health related domains but also wherever the maintenance and development of spiritual meaning and purpose are recognised as important for human flourishing Bringing together an international group of leading scholars across the fields of psychology theology history philosophy sociology and gerontology the volume distils the latest advances in research on spirituality and ageing and engages in vigorous discussion about how we can interpret this learning for the benefit of older people and those who seek to serve and support them

Ageing, meaning and social structure Baars, Jan, Dohmen, Joseph, Grenier, Amanda, Phillipson, Chris, 2014-08-20 Ageing meaning and social structure is a unique book advancing critical discourse in gerontology and makes a major contribution to understanding key social and ethical dilemmas facing ageing societies It confronts and integrates approaches that have been relatively isolated from each other and interrelates two major streams of thought within critical gerontology analyses of structural issues in the context of political economy and humanistic perspectives on issues of existential meaning The chapters from a wide range of contributors focus on major issues in ageing such as autonomy agency frailty lifestyle social isolation dementia and professional challenges in social work and participatory research This volume should be valuable reading for scholars and graduate students in gerontology and humanistic studies as well as for policy makers and practitioners working in the field of ageing Understanding Aging and Diversity Patricia Kolb, 2014-07-11 The demographic phenomena of increased life expectancy increasing global population of older adults and a larger number of older people as a proportion of the total population in nations throughout the world will affect our lives and the life of each person we know The changes will result in challenges and benefits for societies and people of all ages These events need to be understood explained and their consequences addressed sociological theories about aging are an essential part of this process In Understanding Aging and Diversity Theories and Concepts Patricia Kolb presents important sociological theories and concepts for understanding experiences of older people and their families in a rapidly changing world She explores concepts from phenomenology critical theory feminist theory life course theory and gerotranscendence theory to explain important issues in the lives of older people This book investigates similarities and differences in aging experiences focusing in particular on the effects of inequality Kolb examines the relationship of ethnicity race gender sexual orientation and social class to international aging experiences This book explores the relationships between older people and social systems in different ways and informs thinking about policy development and other strategies for enhancing the wellbeing of older adults It will be useful for students and scholars of sociology gerontology social work anthropology economics demography and global studies

Challenging Invisibility: Practices of Care Karen D. Scheib, 2004

Critical Issues in Social Work With Older People Mo G. Ray, Miriam Bernard, Judith Phillips, 2018-06-26 This timely text highlights the importance of informed and critical practice in social work with older people With an emphasis on reflection throughout it argues for the need to rethink how social workers support some of the most vulnerable people in society The text begins with an exploration of the relationship between gerontology the study of aging and social work and demonstrates that a gerontological approach has long been missing from social work practice The central chapters consider key issues affecting older people and social work practice such as Risk of poverty Memory loss and dementia Palliative and end of life care Loss and bereavement Moving into a care home Bringing together theoretical and research insights this agenda setting text provides a sound base for creative practice with older people All those looking to make a positive and discernible difference to older people will find this text rewarding reading
