Christ Present In Faith Luthers View Of Justification:

Christ Present in Faith Tuomo Mannermaa, 2005-01-01 Mannermaa's revisionist work on justification in Luther's theology a notable contribution from one of the most influential Finnish scholars of Luther studies is now available in English His book opens up new interpretive questions for historical theology with striking implications for ecumenism ethics and spirituality He writes the idea of the divine life in Christ which is present in faith lies at the very center of the theology of the Reformer He argues that later Lutheran interpretation of this teaching has portrayed justification as more mechanical and forensic than Luther did underestimated the extent to which God's righteousness is also ours and obscured the radical personal transformation that Luther attributed to justification Justified in the Spirit Frank D. Macchia, 2010-07-26 Argues persuasively that Christian teaching about the Spirit pneumatology has much to offer to a correct understanding of justification We have here a book of singular consequence William G. Rusch Yale Divinity School The Promise of Martin Luther's Political Theology Michael Richard Laffin, 2016-10-20 Michael Laffin demonstrates the promise of Martin Luther's thought for contemporary political theology by showing how Luther has been overdetermined in standard genealogies of modernity which frequently deafen us to his unique contribution Laffin argues that contemporary theologians have typically followed a narrative derived from the work of a previous generation of political historians and philosophers which tend to screen out or distort the Reformers contribution to political theory Common to these narratives are charges against Luther for his perceived univocal and nominal ontology resulting in a privatized and spiritualized Christianity thus falsely dividing the world into autonomous spheres Additionally the narratives claim that Luther follows in the wake of voluntarism leading to an insistence on human passivity that leaves no room for pagan virtue Thus politics is reduced to an authoritarian imposition of order In contrast to the dominant narratives of political modernity Laffin re-examines these narratives by focusing on the political significance of areas in Luther's corpus often neglected in contemporary accounts of his political thought especially his commentaries on Scripture and writings on the sacraments Attention to these writings brings forth the crucial themes of the two ecclesiae and the three institutions Constructively these themes are deployed in critical engagement with contemporary political theology particularly as represented in Radical Orthodoxy and the new Augustinianism Christ's Gift, Our Response Benjamin Durham, 2015-09-28 Sacramental theology has often been a challenging area of conversation between Catholics and Protestants In Christ's Gift Our Response Benjamin Durham envisions a collaborative way forward forging a conversation between two contemporary approaches to the connection between sacraments and ethics Drawing primarily from Louis Marie Chauvet and the Finnish school of Luther interpretation Durham constructs a mutually enriching theological dialogue Beyond comparison and contrast this is an attempt to draw these theologies together as sources for each other rather than as competitors Being and Action Coram Deo Koert Verhagen, 2021-09-09 Koert Verhagen not only provides the first in depth treatment of how the doctrine of justification crucially frames Bonhoeffer's approach to questions surrounding human being and action he also addresses the ethical implications of retrieving this perspective for the Church today Drawing on his early academic theology and his later ethics of discipleship Verhagen argues that Bonhoeffer's emphasis on the social implications of justification leads to an understanding of human existence that is fundamentally relational Along the way he draws Bonhoeffer's thinking on this front into conversation with Luther German idealism the Nazi Weltanschauung and contemporary Pauline scholarship With an eye to the contemporary practical value of Bonhoeffer's theology Verhagen concludes by making the case that the retrieval of justification's social implications provides a critical corrective to ecclesial responses to white supremacy

The Oxford Handbook of Martin Luther's Theology Robert Kolb, Irene Dingel, Lubomir Batka, 2014 A comprehensive look at the background and context the content and the impact of Martin Luther's Theology written by an international team of theologians and historians

Engaging Luther Olli-Pekka Vainio, 2010-04-26 The Reformer Martin Luther is the source of endless fascination and dispute Not only his antagonists but also his supporters have created a host of representations of his thought On the one hand Catholic and other similar voices have accused Luther of being the major agent in the birth of modern secularism On the other hand Lutherans themselves are divided on the meaning of Reformation In view of all these interpretations and dismissals of Luther and the Lutheran Reformation it requires a certain boldness to claim that Luther's theology is intellectually fascinating and contains exceptional resources This is precisely what the present volume claims The studies collected in this volume aim at showing in which sense Luther remains a fully Catholic and genuinely Augustinian theologian who is not so much a forerunner of problematic modernity as a representative of classical Christianity At the same time Luther's theology contains ideas that can be made fruitful in dialogue with currents like communitarianism or Radical Orthodoxy The volume consists of articles written by scholars affiliated with the project known as the New Finnish Interpretation of Luther The topics include Luther's theological anthropology Trinity christology sacraments faith theology of the cross the Virgin Mary sexuality music and the spiritual reading of the Holy Scriptures

The Voice of Public Theology Ted Peters, 2022-11-07 Public theologians are already thundering like prophets at climate change and racial injustice But the gale force winds of natural science blow through society as well The public theologian should be on storm watch

Global Justice, Christology and Christian Ethics Lisa Sowle Cahill, 2013-01-17 Global realities of human inequality poverty violence and ecological destruction call for a twenty first century Christian response which links cross cultural and interreligious cooperation for change to the Gospel This book demonstrates why just action is necessarily a criterion of authentic Christian theology and gives grounds for Christian hope that change in violent structures is really possible Lisa Sowle Cahill argues that theology and biblical interpretation are already embedded in and indebted to ethical political practices and choices Within this ecumenical study she explores the use of the historical Jesus in constructive theology the merits of Word and Spirit Christologies the importance of liberation and feminist theologies as well as theologies from the global south and also the possibility of qualified moral universalism The book will be of great interest to all students of theology religious ethics and politics and biblical studies Evangelical Dictionary of Theology Daniel J. Treier, Walter A. Elwell, 2017-11-07 This bestselling reference tool has been a trusted resource for more than 25 years with over 165 000 copies sold Now thoroughly updated and substantially revised to meet the needs of today's students and classrooms it offers cutting edge overviews of key theological topics Readable and reliable this work features new articles on topics of contemporary relevance to world Christianity and freshened articles on enduring theological subjects providing comprehensive A Z coverage for today's theology students The author base reflects the increasing diversity of evangelical scholars Advisory editors include D Jeffrey Bingham Cheryl Bridges Johns John G Stackhouse Jr Tite Ti nou and Kevin J Vanhoozer
