que en su búsqueda de las raíces del anglicanismo termin por descubrir con nueva luz a la Iglesia católica. A la manera de un san Agustín su camino personal se torna representativo de problemas que hoy nos siguen afectando en toda su hondura como a Charles Reding su entrañable alter ego en la ficción. En Perder y ganar la primera obra de Newman como católico comparece en vivo retrato por primera vez en la literatura el mundo universitario de Oxford con sus peculiaridades sus polémicas religiosas y sus pintorescos personajes. Encantadora por su modernidad y su lenguaje por la fuerza y penetración de sus ideas sorprendente por su ironía y su lirismo Perder y ganar es ante todo una historia conmovedora que quedar ya para siempre en el recuerdo de sus apasionados lectores. Para los admiradores de Newman aún demasiado pocos en nuestro país esta novela supondrá un regalo inesperado para quienes aún no conozcan su fascinante personalidad este relato constituye la mejor introducción a la vida y a la obra de este inglés extraordinario que se dejó cautivar heroicamente por la verdad de Dios.
