Critical Kitaj Issues In Art History Series:

Critical Kitaj James Aulich, John Lynch, 2000 Kataj is a major figure on the post war international art scene His retrospective at the Tate in 1994 generated argument and discussion In over 30 years as a successful artist he has explored the relationship between the visual and the poetic taken references from high literature and popular culture represented heroic figures and struggled to develop an iconography of post Holocaust Jewish identity Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library. Art and Architecture Division, 1975 Art Journal, 1960 Annual Bibliography of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). Library, 2001 Critical Kitaj James Aulich, John Lynch, 2001 The 1994 Kitaj retrospective at the Tate Gallery generated a great deal of furor and discussion only confirming this artist's stature as a major figure in the postwar international arts scene In over thirty years as a successful and respected artist Kitaj has explored the relationship between the visual and the poetic taking references from high literature and popular culture to develop an iconography of post Holocaust Jewish identity in his work In his search for personal and artistic identity the subjects of his work and life have taken him on a literal and figurative journey via Vienna New York Paris London Frankfurt and Los Angeles from youthful bohemianism and studied anarchism to the discovery of his Jewishness His subject matter has not been between easy drawing inspiration and alluding to such diverse sources as Walter Benjamin R P Blackmur Ezra Pound and John Ford The Art of Being Jewish in Modern Times Barbara Kirshenblatt-Gimblett, Jonathan Karp, 2013-02-11 The wide ranging portrayal of modern Jewishness in artistic terms invites scrutiny into the relationship between creativity and the formation of Jewish identity and into the complex issue of what makes a work of art uniquely Jewish Whether it is the provenance of the artist as in the case of popular Israeli singer Zehava Ben the intention of the iconography as in Ben Shahn's antifascist paintings or the utopian ideals of the Jewish Palestine Pavilion at the 1939 New York World's Fair clearly no single formula for defining Jewish art in the diaspora will suffice The Art of Being Jewish in Modern Times is the first work to analyze modern Jewry's engagement with the arts as a whole including music theater dance film museums architecture painting sculpture and more Working with a broad conception of what counts as art the book asks the following questions What roles have commerce and politics played in shaping Jewish artistic agendas Who determines the Jewishness of art and for what purposes What role has aesthetics played in reshaping religious traditions and rituals This richly illustrated volume illuminates how the arts have helped Jews confront the various challenges of modernity including cultural adaptation and self preservation economic diversification and ritual transformation There truly is an art to being Jewish in the modern world or alternatively an art to being modern in the Jewish world and this collection fully captures its range diversity and historical significance Pictorial Narrative in the Nazi Period Deborah Schultz, Edward Timms, 2013-10-31 This book investigates creative responses to the Nazi period in the work of three artists Felix Nussbaum Charlotte Salomon and Arnold Dagbani focusing on their use of pictorial narrative It analyses their contrasting aesthetic strategies and their innovative forms of artistic production In contrast with the autonomous modernist art object their works were explicitly linked with the historical conditions under which they were produced the pressures of persecution and exile Conditions in the slave labour camps and ghettos in the Ukraine which shaped the paintings and drawings of Daghani are contrasted with the experiences of exile in Belgium and France which inspired Nussbaum and Salomon In defiance of conventional artistic practice they produced word image combinations that can be read as narrative sequences incorporating specific references to political events While there has been a wealth of literary philosophical and historical studies relating to the Holocaust aesthetic debate has developed less extensively This is the first comparative study of three artists who are only belatedly achieving recognition and the recent reception of their work is evaluated By identifying the aesthetic principles and narrative strategies underlying their work the book reassesses their achievement in creating new forms of modernism with an unmistakable political momentum This book was published as a special issue of Word Image Essays in a Pluralistic Art World Arthur C. Danto,2001-09-04 Danto writes about the contemporary art to be seen in museums and galleries placing it in the context of the history of modern art and of current debates about essential ideas in our society The Concise New Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle,2008-11-28 A Who's Who of Western culture from Woody Allen to Emile Zola Containing four hundred essay style entries and covering the period from 1850 to the present The Concise New Makers of Modern Culture includes artists writers dramatists architects philosophers anthropologists scientists sociologists major political figures composers film makers and many other culturally significant individuals and is thoroughly international in its purview Next to Karl Marx is Bob Marley with John Ruskin is Salman Rushdie alongside Darwin is Luigi Dallapiccola Deng Xiaoping rubs shoulders with Jacques Derrida as do Julia Kristeva and Kropotkin With its global reach The Concise New Makers of Modern Culture provides a multi voiced witness of the contemporary thinking world The entries carry short bibliographies and there is thorough cross referencing as well as an index of names and key terms Imagining Jewish Art Aaron Rosen,2017-07-05 Short listed for the Art and Christian Enquiry Mercers International Book Award 2009 a book which makes an outstanding contribution to the dialogue between religious faith and the visual arts What does modern Jewish art look like Where many scholars critics and curators have gone searching for the essence of Jewish art in Biblical illustrations and other traditional subjects Rosen sets out to discover Jewishness in unlikely places How he asks have modern Jewish painters explored their Jewish identity using an artistic past which is by and large non Jewish In this new book we encounter some of the great works of Western art history through Jewish eyes We see Matthias Grunewald's Isenheim Altarpiece re imagined by Marc Chagall 1887 1985 traces of Paolo Uccello and Piero della Francesca in Philip Guston 1913 1980 and images by Diego Velazquez and Paul Cezanne studiously reworked by R B Kitaj 1932 2007 This highly comparative study draws on theological philosophical and literary sources from Franz Rosenzweig to Franz Kafka and Philip Roth Rosen deepens our understanding not only of Chagall Guston and Kitaj but also of how art might serve as a key resource for rethinking such fundamental Jewish concepts

as family tradition and homeland
