

Critical College Reading (REA 054) — Reading and Reasoning Critically

Critical Thinking

- Weighing Claims—the ability to assess the strength of reasons and reasoning up against a counterpart.
- Definitions—What does the word mean independently?—Potential separation from actual use.
- What does the word mean in the way the author is intending it?—What is the word trying to do. “e.g. concretely”
- What baggage or associations does it hold in the setting/situation in which it is used? “e.g. Spiritual”

Evaluating/Presumptions

- Evaluating Information—Does the author reference outside authorities? Does the author depend on the use of facts/evidence to make the claim?
- Questioning Assumptions—What concepts are implied or beneath the statements? What needs to be true in order for the explicit statement to make sense?

Argumentative Ascension

- Judgments—How does one qualify or finally come to a conclusion given the reasons and material presented?
- What ultimately needs to happen to convince that the presentation is truthful?
- When is point made—a concept communicated? When is the reader still left wanting, in terms of being persuaded?

Knowledge and Persuasion

- Knowledge presupposes that the more access one has to it, the more likely one is to tell the truth in relation to the subject.
- Knowledge always admits that there are levels of knowing and that having access to it allows one the privilege of authority.
- Forms of knowledge need to be in combination with one another in order to maintain themselves. The knowledge in one domain always influences what is positively known in another.

Community College and Beyond José R. Del Real Viramontes, Marissa C. Vasquez, 2023-08-01 As the transfer disparity persists among Latina/o/x community college students and continues to widen for those seeking to complete their baccalaureate degree we asked ourselves three questions 1 How do Latina/o/x community college students navigate the transfer preparation and decision making process 2 Once at the university how do Latina/o/x transfer students negotiate their identities and lived experiences as they persist towards graduation and beyond And 3 What policies practices and programs at both two and four year institutions facilitate access persistence and completion for Latina/o/x community college transfer students These reflections prompted us to seek answers This is the first edited book to provide much needed theoretical and empirical insights on Latina/o/x students who enter postsecondary education through the community college Our book offers a comprehensive outlook on the pre and post transfer experiences of Latina o x students written by scholars and scholarpractitioners working in the field of higher education In addition we include specific sections that speak directly to policies practices and theory that address transfer pathways for Latina o x community college and transfer students Journal of Developmental Education ,2004
