Critical Turning Points In The Middle East 1915 2015:

Critical Turning Points in the Middle East N. Al-Rodhan, G. Herd, L. Watanabe, 2011-04-28 This book takes a novel look at the modern Middle East through the prisms of six cascading negative critical turning points. It identifies the seeds of a potential seventh in the collective dignity deficits generated by poor governance paradigms and exacerbated by geopolitical competition for the region's natural resources. State-Building in the Middle East and North Africa Mohammad-Mahmoud Ould Mohamedou, 2021-10-21 Why have state building projects across the MENA region proven to be so difficult for so long? Following the end of the Ottoman Empire in the early 1920s, the countries of the region began a violent and divisive process of state formation. But a century later, state building remains inconclusive. This book traces the emergence and evolution of state building across the MENA region and identifies the main factors that impeded its success: the slow end of the Ottoman Empire, the experience of colonialism, and the rise of nationalistic and religious movements. The authors reveal the ways in which the post-colonial state proved itself authoritarian and formed on the model of the colonial state. They also identify the nationalist and Islamist movements that competed for political leadership across the nascent systems, enabling the military to establish a grip on the security apparatus and national economies. Finally, in the context of the Arab Spring and its conflict-filled aftermath, this book shows how external powers reasserted their interventionism. In outlining the reasons why regional states remained hollow and devoid of legitimacy, each of the contributors shows that recent conflicts and crises are deeply connected to the foundational period of one century ago. Edited by Mohammad Mahmoud Ould Mohamedou, the volume features contributions by stellar scholars including Faleh Abdel Jabar, Lisa Anderson, Bertrand Badie, François Burgat, Benoit Challand, Ahmad Khalidi, Henry Laurens, Bruce Rutherford, Jordi Tejel, and Ghassan Salam. Critical Junctures and Historical Legacies David Collier, Gerardo L. Munck, 2022-02-28 Over the past 50 years, scholars across the social sciences have employed critical juncture analysis to understand how social orders are created, become entrenched, and change. In this book, leading scholars from several disciplines offer the first coordinated effort to define this field of research, assess its theoretical and methodological foundations, and use a critical assessment of current practices as a basis for guiding its future. Contributors include stars in this field who have written some of the classic works on critical junctures, as well as the rising stars of the next generation who will continue to shape historical comparative analysis for years to come. Critical Junctures and Historical Legacies will be an indispensable resource for social science research methods scholars and students. War on Gaza Abdo Hassoun, 2025-07-01 The relentless bombardment and blockade on Gaza have not only drastically restricted the inflow of essential food supplies but have also led to a catastrophic humanitarian crisis with unprecedented casualties. The widespread destruction has crippled the ability of the population to grow and process food, leaving Gazans without sufficient access to basic nutrition and pushing them to the brink of famine. Building on the previous work of Dr. Hassoun on acute food insecurity and malnutrition in Gaza, this book addresses not only Sustainable Development Goal SDG 2 Zero

Hunger SDG 3 Good Health and Well being and SDG 6 Clean Water and Sanitation but all seventeen SDGs While brief reports have been published on the topic this will be the first in depth scholarly work offering case studies data driven analysis from various fields and a comprehensive examination of the multidimensional and devastating impacts of war With an urgent and multidisciplinary perspective this book highlights the interconnectedness of war sustainability and global security emphasizing how hostilities in Gaza have reversed progress toward achieving all SDGs both in Gaza and beyond Bringing together diverse expertise from 60 authors across 27 countries the book showcases the international and interdisciplinary collaboration underlying its research Through a series of carefully curated chapters written by specialists in various fields it provides a comprehensive analysis of how war has affected societal structure economic resilience and environmental sustainability in Gaza For each issue addressed the text offers strategic insights and practical measures aimed at mitigating damage and fostering resilience This book serves as a critical resource for policymakers researchers humanitarian organizations and anyone who is interested in understanding and addressing the complex dynamics of conflict and sustainability

21st-Century Statecraft Nayef Al-Rodhan, 2022-07-28 From civilisational frontier risks associated with new challenges like disruptive technologies to the shifting nature of great power conflicts and subversion the 21st century requires a new approach to statecraft In 21st Century Statecraft Professor Nayef Al Rodhan proposes five innovative statecraft concepts He makes the case for a new method of geopolitical analysis called meta geopolitics and for dignity based governance He shows how in an interdependent and interconnected world traditional thinking must move beyond zero sum games and focus on multi sum and symbiotic realist interstate relations This requires a new paradigm of global security premised on five dimensions of security and a new concept of power just power which highlights the centrality of justice to state interests These concepts enable states to balance competing interests and work towards what the author calls reconciliation statecraft Throughout Professor Al Rodhan brings his philosophical and neuroscientific expertise to bear providing a practical model for conducting statecraft in a sustainable way

The Arab Spring, Civil Society, and Innovative Activism Cenap Çakmak, 2016-12-09 This book investigates the role of society groups in the making of the Arab Spring and under which conditions they attained their goals Democracy and recognition of human rights and fundamental freedoms seem to be the main drives of the people organized in form of civil groups or grassroots movements in the Arab Spring countries but it is essential to identify when they find it suitable to take such extreme action as taking the streets in an attempt to take down the repressive regimes It is also important to investigate what methods they relied on in their action and how they challenged the state and the government A review of the cases in this volume shows that civil society has certain limitations in its action Analysis of the cases also challenges a commonly held assumption that the Arab world does not have strong and rich civil society tradition However for a lasting success and consolidation of democracy something more than civil society action is obviously needed A strong organized opposition and a democratic culture seems to be indispensable elements for the evolution of a democratic order and tradition The New Spirit of Islamism Ezgi Basaran, 2024-05-02 This book explains the aspirations and concerns of Islamist actors in the aftermath of the Arab Uprisings by looking at two sets of relationships between Turkey's ruling AKP and the Egyptian Muslim Brotherhood and the AKP and Tunisia's Ennahda. It presents a unique analysis of the interplay between the AKP, Ennahda, and the Muslim Brotherhood, characterizing the actors, the structure, and the main features of the relationship and thereby illuminating a political confluence among these three critical Islamist entities in the aftermath of the Arab Uprisings. Existing scholarship has assumed that this relationship revolves primarily around an ideological Islamist agenda; however, this research demonstrates a more complex and nuanced situation. Ezgi Basaran puts forward that the interplay was not based on an aspiration of building an ideological Islamist bloc in the MENA region but rather revolved around the concept of political success and had a strong neoliberal ethos. Basaran draws on data collected from over 60 interviews with high-level members of the AKP, Ennahda, and Muslim Brotherhood to demonstrate how, in the hope of achieving success and legitimization, Ennahda and the Muslim Brotherhood have relied on the managerial prescriptions provided by the AKP. The contents of this success formula were derived from the AKP's experience as an Islamist party in power since 2002 and include tactics on crisis evasion, legitimization, winning elections, and maintaining power.

The Small Gulf States Khalid Almezaini, Jean-Marc Rickli, 2016-12-08 Small states are often believed to have been resigned to the margins of international politics. However, the recent increase in the number of small states has increased their influence and forced the international community to incorporate some of them into the global governance system. This is particularly evident in the Middle East, where small Gulf states have played an important role in the changing dynamics of the region in the last decade. The Small Gulf States analyses the evolution of these states' foreign and security policies since the Arab Spring, with particular focus on Oman, Qatar, and the United Arab Emirates. It explores how these states have been successful in not only guaranteeing their survival but also in increasing their influence in the region. It then discusses the security dilemmas small states face and suggests a multitude of foreign and security policy options ranging from autonomy to influence in order to deal with this. The book also looks at the influence of regional and international actors on the policies of these countries. It concludes with a discussion of the peculiarities and contributions of the Gulf states for the study of small states' foreign and security policies in general. Providing a comprehensive and up-to-date analysis of the unique foreign and security policies of the states of the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) before and after the Arab Spring, this book will be a valuable resource for students and scholars of Middle East studies, foreign policy, and international relations.

The Politics of the Past: The Representation of the Ancient Empires by Iran's Modern States Maryam Dezhmakhoo, Leila Papoli-Yazdi, 2018-12-31 This book examines the highly problematic politics of the past surrounding the archaeology of ancient empires in Iran. Discussing their personal and professional experiences, the authors exemplify the real ethical dilemmas that archaeologists confront in the Middle East.
