Crossing Borders International Women Students In American Higher Education:

Crossing Borders Dongxiao Qin,2009-05-16 This book explores the processes of self understanding that take place in a group of Chinese women studying in universities in the United States In the past few decades there has been an increasing number of Chinese women attending U S universities yet their psychological experiences within American culture have not been a focus of study by researchers in higher education Those who crossed geographic cultural and psychological borders to study in the U S described their change as a basic psychological process called reweaving a fragmented self This book contributes to the educator s understanding of the diversity of international women s student experiences expectations and desires

History of Universities Mordechai Feingold,2014-10-09 Volume XXVII 2 of History of Universities contains the customary mix of learned articles and book reviews which makes this publication such an indispensable tool for the historian of higher education The volume is as always a lively combination of original research and invaluable reference material

Toward a Good Society Tian-jia Dong,Dongxiao Qin,2021-11-05 In Toward a Good Society A Relational Lens authors Tian jia Dong and Dongxiao Qin theorize a mutually empowering and growth fostering society The authors first demonstrate the feasibility of this society by grounding it in the framework of relational psychology Departing from there they travel along nine paths reconstructed from nine classic social science theories In each chapter they respectively reconstruct and find ways to move beyond Durkheimian structural functionalism de Tocqueville s communalism Mead s symbolic interactionism Freud s psychoanalytic perspective Simmel s network theory Smith s invisible hand Marx s class theory Hobbes s contractarianism and Weber s rational legal formulation This leads them to propose a new Golden Rule that is as simple as it is profound and foundational to what makes a good society

Routledge Handbook of Chinese Gender & Sexuality Jamie J. Zhao,Hongwei Bao,2024-04-09 This Handbook offers a rich survey of topics concerning historical modern and contemporary Chinese genders and sexualities Exploring gender and sexuality as key dimensions of China s modernisation and globalisation this Handbook effectively situates Chinese gender and sexuality in transnational and transcultural contexts It also spotlights nonnormative practices and emancipatory potentials within mainstream heterosexual dominated and patriarchally structured settings It serves as a definitive study research and resource guide for emerging gender and sexuality issues in the Chinese speaking world This Handbook covers interdisciplinary methodologies perspectives and topics including History Literature Art Fashion Migration Translation Sex and desire Film and television Digital media Star and fan cultures Fantasies and lives of women and LGBTQ groups Social movements Transnational feminist and queer politics Paying acute attention to nonnormative genders and sexualities and emphasising the intersectionality of gender sexuality nationality ethnicity and class this Handbook offers an essential field defining text to Chinese gender and sexuality studies

Crossing Borders in East Asian Higher Education David W. Chapman,William K. Cummings,Gerard A. Postiglione,2010-11-18 This book examines issues that have emerged as higher education systems and individual institutions across East Asia confront and adapt to the changing economic social and educational environments in which they now operate The book s focus is on how higher education systems learn from each other and on the ways in which they collaborate to address new challenges The sub theme that runs through this volume concerns the changing nature of cross border sharing In particular the provision of technical assistance by more industrialized countries to lower and middle income countries has given way to collaborations that place the latter s participating institutions on a more equal footing

Autoethnographies of Border-Crossing and In-Betweenness of International Doctoral Students' Voices in the United States, 2024-12-16

This edited volume powerfully captures autoethnographies of international doctoral students in the U S and unravels a plethora of their experiences that oscillate between challenges and triumphs of navigating in betweenness in their unique journeys The concepts of border crossing and in betweenness encapsulate more than just a mere geographic displacement Rather they delineate the intricate dance of cultural emotional intellectual and oftentimes spiritual transitions often fraught with tension and self reflection As such 12 chapters in this book will provide the readers with invaluable insights and foster a deeper empathy and understanding of the complexities faced by international students in the U S Contributors are Saurabh Anand Nadia Bhuiyan Miriam Furlan Brighente Heewon Chang Suparna Chatterjee Hanh Dinh Sumeyra Gok Monisha Issano Jackson Grace Jue Yeon Kim Nasiba Norova Luis Javier Pent n Herrera Lakmini Grant Siriwardana Natalie Thibault Ethan Trinh Ngoc Tung Vu Abir Ward Zhenjie Weng Bedrettin Yazan Eun Young Yeom Jing Yu and Jingyi Zhu

International Student Engagement in Higher Education Margaret Kettle, 2017-06-15 Hand in hand with the continuing drive to recruit international students to Western universities goes an interest in student engagement However it is often unclear exactly what is meant by engagement This book goes beyond the policy rhetoric to provide a practice based explication of international student engagement and its enabling institutional conditions By utilising a social practice conceptual model the book explains the multiple dimensions of engagement that are often conflated in policy the antecedents to engagement the actions of engaging and the achievements and outcomes of engagement As a result the book is able to address issues such as how English comes to matter in international student academic practice the teaching and assessment approaches that promote international student engagement and the metacognitive cognitive and affective strategies that international students use to achieve academic and personal transformation

Black Women, Academe, and the Tenure Process in the United States and the Caribbean Talia Esnard, Deirdre Cobb-Roberts, 2018-08-06

This book explores the meanings experiences and challenges faced by Black women faculty that are either on the tenure track or have earned tenure The authors advance the notion of comparative intersectionality to tease through the contextual peculiarities and commonalities that define their identities as Black women and their experiences with tenure and promotion across the two geographical spaces By so doing it works through a comparative treatment of existing social inequalities educational disparities and injustices in the promotion and retention of Black women academics Such interpretative examinations offer important insights into how Black women's subjugated knowledge and experiences continue to be suppressed within mainstream structures of power and how they are negotiated across contexts International Student Security Simon Marginson, Chris Nyland, Erlenawati Sawir, Helen Forbes-Mewett, 2010-07-29 More than three million students globally are on the move each year crossing borders for their tertiary education Many travel from Asia and Africa to English speaking countries led by the United States including the UK Australia and New Zealand where students pay tuition fees at commercial rates and prop up an education export sector that has become lucrative for the provider nations But the no frills commercial form of tertiary education designed to minimise costs and maximise revenues leaves many international students inadequately protected and less than satisfied International Student Security draws on a close study of international students in Australia and exposes opportunity difficulty danger and courage on a massive scale in the global student market It works through many unresolved issues confronting students and their families including personal safety language proficiency finances sub standard housing loneliness and racism Resources in Education ,2001-04
