Takyi, John A. Arthur, 2006-01-01 The New African Diaspora in North America brings together sociologists social workers geographers economists anthropologists and others to explore the African immigrant experience from a multi disciplinary perspective The contributors shed light on the factors behind the increasing wave in African immigration to the U S and Canada the socio economic characteristics of African immigrants their spatial distribution obstacles and contributions Despite their increasing presence African immigrant groups in the U S and Canada have engendered relatively little scholarly research on their pre and post migration experience This collection helps fill that void and will be valuable reading for anyone interested in African Diaspora studies America's Unseen Kids Harold M. Foster, Megan C. Nosol, 2008 Hal Foster and Megan Nosol speak boldly about not only the inequalities that exist in America's schools but also of strategies that give those kids the rich education we want for all students the rich education each student deserves Kylene Beers Author of When Kids Can't Read What Teachers Can Do Do you teach in a forgotten high school Where students are limited by poverty the facilities are in dire need of repair and the district has declared an academic emergency but doesn't know how to remedy the situation Harold

Foster and Megan Nosol have taught successfully in forgotten schools In America's Unseen Kids they reject stereotypes of urban students and schools and focus on new ways to reach out to teens in the English language arts classroom Foster and Nosol know from experience that students will rise to the challenge of higher expectations when you strengthen your relationships with them Their strategies will help you involve students in their learning by making it personal get students to raise their own expectations by setting yours higher and reinforcing them drive growth in reading and writing by making them explicit and repeatable use student interests to support learning by connecting school life to real life meet all students needs through flexible teaching No matter how tough your school is America's Unseen Kids will inspire and empower you to help students imagine new possibilities and realize them Read it today because your school may be forgotten but your students will always remember the heights you helped them reach Choice ,2005 English Journal ,2003
