Critical Rhetorics of Race Michael G. Lacy, Kent A. Ono, 2011-07-11 According to many pundits and cultural commentators the U S is enjoying a post racial age thanks in part to Barack Obama s rise to the presidency This high gloss of optimism fails however to recognize that racism remains ever present and alive spread by channels of media and circulated even in colloquial speech in ways that can be difficult to analyze In this groundbreaking collection edited by Michael G Lacy and Kent A Ono scholars seek to examine this complicated and contradictory terrain while moving the field of communication in a more intellectually productive direction An outstanding group of contributors from a range of academic backgrounds challenges traditional definitions and applications of rhetoric From the troubling media representations of black looters after Hurricane Katrina and rhetoric in news coverage about the Columbine and Virginia Tech massacres to cinematic representations of race in Crash Blood Diamond and Quentin Tarantino s films these essays reveal complex intersections and constructions of racialized bodies and discourses critiquing race in innovative and exciting ways Critical Rhetorics of Race seeks not only to understand and navigate a world fraught with racism but to change it one word at a time produced during the late Obama and Trump eras this volume details the influence of historical and contemporary representations of race on public discourse in America Using Brown s death and the ensuing protests as a focal point contributors argue that Ferguson marks the rupture of America s postracial fantasy An ideology premised on colorblindness the notion of the postracial suggests that the United States has largely achieved racial equality and that race is no longer a central organizing category in American society Postracialism is partly responsible for ahistorical romanticized narratives of slavery Jim Crow segregation and American exceptionalism The legitimacy of this fantasy the editors contend was the first casualty of the tanks tear gas and rubber bullets wielded against protesters during the summer of 2014 From these protests emerged a new political narrative organized around BlackLivesMatter which directly challenged the fantasy of a postracial American society Essays in Rupturing Rhetoric cover such texts as Fresh Off the Boat Hamilton Green Book NPR s American Anthem Lovecraft Country Disney remakes of Dumbo The Lion King and Lady and the Tramp BlackKlansman Crazy Rich Asians The Hateful Eight and Fences As a unified body of work the collection interrogates the ways contemporary media in American popular culture respond to and subvert the postracial fantasy underlying the politics of our time The Handbook of Critical Intercultural Communication Thomas K.
