Critical Theory Ethics for Business and Public Administration David M. Boje, 2008-09-01 The purpose of this book is to develop those ethical traditions For example Horkheimer s books Eclipse of Reason and Critique of Instrumental Reason and his early and now classic essay Materialism and Morality ask for a reformation of Kantian ethics The reform sought is that categorical imperative in an individualism capitalism serves to worsen the difference between business ethics and moral philosophy That is it is not enough to try to be good or ethical as individuals when it is the systemic processes that must be dealt with Therefore Horkheimer asks that the maxim that would be made universal be done at the level of people organizing with others to change the social system that is producing the unethical behaviors The book is organized into several sections The first section sets the stages beginning with a challenge to the field of social responsibility in business and public administration Jones Ten bos Parker have a new book out that is smashing Then we turn to Carr and to Zanettic who each have done critical theory work in public administration This is followed by Heather Hopfl who edited an issue on ethics of goodness and does the kind of writing that makes deep connections The next set of chapters make topic connections rhizomatics dialogics of co experience story narrative and postmodern The third set of topics focus on application technofuturist international business economics university environment accounting spirituality strategy and ending with Mills work on silence of race ethnicity in business and public administration ethics writing

Using Critical Research for Educational and Social Change Tricia Kress, 2016-04-08 This volume features the works of scholar practitioners who embrace critical pedagogy and critical research as praxis in qualitative research about education The authors take an explicit stance toward social justice through education and they use critical research as a vehicle toward that end The chapters critically engage with topics such as researcher role and position in critical research collaborative research models with teachers and students exploring visual epistemology in schools and with students critical science education and cosmopolitanism and developing praxis within teacher preparation courses and teacher research Contributors push the boundaries of scholarship by presenting nuanced theoretical discussions or critical and timely educational issues via innovative forms of representation i e fiction narratives dialogues rich descriptions and visuals This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Qualitative Studies in Education

Critical Theory: Rituals, Pedagogies and Resistance Peter McLaren, 2022-03-28 This collection of essays incorporates some of the most important and longstanding foundational texts in education developed by the leading educational neo Gramscian social theorist Peter McLaren The volume provides a much necessary framework for understanding more precisely not only the historical and philosophical foundations for McLaren s ideas but even more importantly it unpacks a clear understanding of the dynamics of ideological production framing the epistemicidal nature of capitalist schools The chapters provide state of the art approaches grounded in both Marxist social theory and post critical sensibilities They show the unique opportunities provided by critical theoretical approaches towards revolutionary pedagogies which are crucial to address the current challenges one is facing locally nationally and internationally Critical Theory Rituals Pedagogies and Resistance speaks to the current challenges we face as humanity not only situating them historically but also securitizing the role that our educational institutions curriculum matrixes and teacher education programs have played in such social havoc It provides crucial insights not only to help a better understanding of the accomplishments produced by the critical educational and curriculum river in the struggle against the educational and curriculum epistemicide but also to help explore alternative ways responsive to the world s endless epistemological difference and diversity While the future of our field needs to go beyond Peter McLaren s intellectual thesaurus it cannot certainly avoid going through him The itinerant curriculum theory and the ICTheorists are conscious about that Jo o M Paraskeva Professor of Educational Leadership and Policy Studies University of Strathclyde Handbook of Critical and Indigenous Methodologies Norman K.
