Critical Perspectives in Food Studies Mustafa Koc, Jennifer Sumner, Anthony Winson, 2021-08-03 The market leading interdisciplinary exploration of food and its essential place in our society by Canadian and international scholars Critical Perspectives in Food Studies is a compelling examination of the shifting interpretations perspectives challenges governance issues and future visions that shape the study of food and food issues in Canada and around the world With new chapters on a diverse range of current food related issues this third edition continues to bring students original contributions by Canadian scholars that will inspire readers to consider the varied and complex means by which we bring food to the table Feminist

Animal and Multispecies Studies: Critical Perspectives on Food and Eating, 2023-12-04 This book develops critical feminist animal and multispecies studies across various societal and environmental contexts The chapters discuss timely questions broadly related to food and eating stemming from connections drawn between critical animal studies feminist theory and multispecies studies The themes explored include trans inclusive ecofeminism decolonial perspectives to veganism links between the critique of ableism and animal exploitation alternatives to dominant Western masculinities invested in meat consumption and the politics of sex and purity in factory farming The book explores responses to interlinked forms of exploitation by focusing on sites such as sanctuaries educational institutions social media and animal advocacy

Critical Perspectives on Food Sovereignty Marc Edelman, 2017-10-02 This volume is a pioneering contribution to the study of food politics and critical agrarian studies where food sovereignty has emerged as a pivotal concept over the past few decades with a wide variety of social movements on the ground experiments and policy innovations flying under its broad banner Despite its large and growing popularity the history theoretical foundations and political program of food sovereignty have only occasionally received in depth analysis and critical scrutiny This collection brings together both longstanding scholars in critical agrarian studies such as Philip McMichael Bina Agarwal Henry Bernstein Jan Douwe van der Ploeg and Marc Edelman as well as a dynamic roster of early and mid career researchers The ultimate aim is to advance this important frontier of research and organizing and put food sovereignty on stronger footing as a mobilizing frame a policy objective and a plan of action for the human future This volume was published as part one of the special double issue celebrating the 40th anniversary of the Journal of Peasant Studies Critical perspectives in food studies Mustafa Koc, 2021 Critical

Perspectives in Rural Development Studies Saturnino M. Borrás Jr., 2013-09-13 Agrarian transformations within and across countries have been significantly and dynamically altered during the past few decades compared to previous eras provoking a variety of reactions from rural poor communities worldwide The recent convergence of various crises financial food energy and environmental has put the nexus between rural development and development in general back onto the center stage of theoretical policy and political agendas in the world today Confronting these issues will require re engaging with critical theories taking politics seriously and utilizing rigorous and appropriate research methodologies These are the common messages and implications of the various contributions to this collection in the context of a scholarship that is critical in two senses questioning prescriptions from mainstream perspectives and interrogating popular conventions in radical thinking This book focuses on key perspectives frameworks and methodologies in agrarian change and peasant studies The contributors are leading scholars in the field of rural development studies Henry Bernstein Terence J Byres Saturnino M Borras Jr Marc Edelman Crist bal Kay Benedict Kerkvliet Philip McMichael Shahra Razavi Ian Scoones and Teodor Shanin This book was previously published as a special issue of the Journal of Peasant Studies A Handbook of Food Crime Allison Gray,Ronald Hinch,2019-10-09 Food today is over corporatized and under regulated It is involved in many immoral harmful and illegal practices along production distribution and consumption systems These problematic conditions have significant consequences on public health and well being nonhuman animals and the environment often simultaneously In this insightful book Gray and Hinch explore the phenomenon of food crime Through discussions of food safety food fraud food insecurity agricultural labour livestock welfare genetically modified foods food sustainability food waste food policy and food democracy they problematize current food systems and criticize their underlying ideologies Bringing together the best contemporary research in this area they argue for the importance of thinking criminologically about food and propose radical solutions to the realities of unjust food systems Critical Perspectives on Veganism Jodey Castricano,Rasmus R. Simonsen,2016-09-13 This book examines the ethics politics and aesthetics of veganism in contemporary culture and thought Traditionally a lifestyle located on the margins of western culture veganism has now been propelled into the mainstream and as agribusiness grows animal issues are inextricably linked to environmental impact as well as to existing ethical concerns This collection connects veganism to a range of topics including gender sexuality race the law and popular culture It explores how something as basic as one s food choices continue to impact on the cultural political and philosophical discourse of the modern day and asks whether the normalization of veganism strengthens or detracts from the radical impetus of its politics With a Foreword by Melanie Joy and Jens Tuidor this book analyzes the mounting prevalence of veganism as it appears in different cultural shifts and asks how veganism might be rethought and re practised in the twenty first century Elgar Encyclopedia of Food and Society Lewis Holloway,Michael K. Goodman,Damian Maye,Moya Kneafsey,Alexandra E. Sexton,Ana Moragues-Faus,2025-08-11 Featuring over 120 entries from international experts this Encyclopedia provides a comprehensive overview of the activities ideas issues and challenges that shape relationships between food systems and society Each entry includes an accessible and informative introduction to its topic along with specific examples recommended further reading and references to other sources This title contains one or more Open Access chapters Learning, Food, and Sustainability Jennifer Sumner,2016-09-14 This edited volume explores the intersection of learning and food both within and beyond the classroom all within the context of sustainability Taking a broad pedagogical approach to the question of food it focuses on learning and change in a number of key sites including schools homes communities and social movements keeping in mind that we need to learn our way out of our current unsustainable food system and in to more sustainable alternatives Delicious Pixels Agata Waszkiewicz, 2022-06-06 Delicious Pixels Food in Video Games introduces critical food studies to game scholarship showing the unique ways in which food is utilized in both video game gameplay and narrative to show that food is never just food but rather a complex means of communication and meaning making It aims at bringing the academic attention to digital food and to show how significant it became in the recent decades as on the one hand a world building device and on the other a crucial link between the in game and out of game identities and experiences This is done by examining specifically the examples of games in which food serves as the means of creating an intimate cozy and safe world and a close relationship between the players and the characters
