Cross Talk Preaching Redemption Here And Now:

Cross Talk Sally A. Brown, 2008-03-03 Contending that preachers have become silent on a major doctrinal theme of the Christian faith the meaning of the crucifixion and the cross as a theological symbol Sally A Brown describes the nature and causes of this phenomenon and provides a strategy for reclaiming cross talk in the pulpit Brown proposes a metaphorical and pastoral model for preaching about the cross Preachers can reclaim preaching on the cross she urges by joining New Testament metaphors to pastoral situations rather than adapting atonement theories for the pulpit She offers specific examples in sermons designed for particular homiletical occasions Cross Talk Sally Ann Brown, 2008 Stumbling over the Cross Joni S. Sancken, 2016-04-21 It has never been easy to preach about the cross and resurrection of Jesus but difficulties today are particularly challenging Hearers ask tough questions of the church and the Christian faith and they are not satisfied by formulaic answers People are often suspicious of doctrine and are attracted to a broad but vague or pluralistic spirituality rather than the classical claims of Christianity In this climate preachers often see preaching on the central events of the Christian story the crucifixion and resurrection as more of a problem than a possibility more of a burden than a joy They wonder not only how to preach the old old story of cross and resurrection but whether they should preach these themes at all This book addresses these concerns and shows preachers how to preach the cross and resurrection in fresh culturally relevant ways that deepen Christian discipleship Each chapter shows the relevance of preaching the cross for addressing a particular congregational concern What has ironically become a stumbling block in the pulpit the stone that preachers often reject preaching on the cross and resurrection of Jesus can serve as the cornerstone for building up the congregation for discipleship in our world Preaching the Manifold Grace of God, Volume 2 Ronald J. Allen, 2022-07-05

Preaching the Manifold Grace of God is a two volume work describing theologies of preaching from the historical and contemporary periods Volume 1 focuses on historical theological families Orthodox Roman Catholic Lutheran Reformed Anabaptist Anglican Episcopal Wesleyan Baptist African American Stone Campbell Friends and Pentecostal Volume 2 focuses on families that are evangelical liberal neo orthodox postliberal existential radical orthodox deconstructionist Black liberation womanist Latinx liberation Mujerista Asian American Asian American feminist LGBTQAI Indigenous postcolonial and process In each case the author describes the circumstances in which the theological family emerged describes the purposes and characteristics of preaching from that perspective and assesses the strengths and limitations of the approach Homiletical Theology in Action David Schnasa Jacobsen, 2015-11-17 Homiletics is taking a theological turn But what does the preaching task look like if we think of it not so much as a mastery of technique but an exercise in theological method Homiletical Theology in Action The Unfinished Theological Task of Preaching tries to envision the work of homiletics as theological in root and branch By placing theological questions at the center of the process the authors some of the leading lights of the field of homiletics try to show how their work as preachers and homileticians is a thoroughgoing theological activity By beginning with troublesome texts and problematic doctrines they seek to show how preachers and homileticians engage in theology not as consumers but as producers and in the thick of the kinds of questions that preachers have to ask

Practitioners and theological educators alike will catch a glimpse of how they too are residential theologians in their own preaching praxis

The Journey and Promise of African American Preaching Kenyatta R. Gilbert, 2011-04-01 The Journey and Promise of African American Preaching is a constructive effort to examine the historical contributions of African American preaching the challenges it faces today and how it might become a renewed source of healing and strength for at risk communities and churches from publisher description

The Continuum Companion to Hume Alan Bailey, Daniel Jayes O'Brien, 2012-03-08 David Hume 1711 1776 philosopher historian and essayist is widely considered to be Britain's greatest philosopher One of the leading intellectual figures of the Scottish Enlightenment his major works and central ideas especially his radical empiricism and his critique of the pretensions of philosophical rationalism remain hugely influential on contemporary philosophers This comprehensive and accessible guide to Hume's life and work includes 21 specially commissioned essays written by a team of leading experts covering every aspect of Hume's thought The Companion presents details of Hume's life historical and philosophical context a comprehensive overview of all the key themes and topics apparent in his work including his accounts of causal reasoning scepticism the soul and the self action reason free will miracles natural religion politics human nature women economics and history and an account of his reception and enduring influence This is an essential reference tool for anyone working in the fields of Hume Studies and Eighteenth Century Philosophy

Exodus Preaching Dr. Kenyatta R. Gilbert, 2018-03-20 Exodus Preaching is the first of its kind It is an exploration of the African American prophetic rhetorical traditions in a manner that makes features of these traditions relevant to a broad audience beyond the African American traditions It provides readers a composite picture of the nature meaning and relevance of prophetic preaching as spoken Word of justice and hope in a society of growing pluralism and the world shaping phenomenon of racial economic and cultural diversity African American preachers have distinctively invested great symbolic significance in the Exodus story the messianic witness of Jesus and the prophetic literature for developing and shaping prophetic sermons Kenyatta Gilbert demonstrates how four distinctive features of discourse can shape sermon preparation for effective preaching in a period of intense social change racial unrest and violence Gilbert includes dozens of practical suggestions and five practical exercises to equip the reader for preaching in new ways and in new environments He offers an holistic approach fully equipping the reader with the theological and practical resources needed to preach prophetically

Homiletical Theology David Schnasa Jacobsen, 2015-02-13 Karl Barth famously argued that all theology is sermon preparation But what if all sermon preparation is actually theology This book pursues a thoroughgoing theological vision for the practice of preaching as a way of doing theology The idea is not just that homiletics is the realm of theological application That would leave preaching in the position of simply implementing a theology already arrived at Instead the vision in these pages is of a form of theology that begins with preaching itself its practice its theories and its contexts Homiletical theology is thus a unique way of doing theology even a constructive theological task in its own right Homiletician David Schnasa Jacobsen has assembled several of the leading lights of contemporary homiletics to help to see its task ever more deeply as theological yet in profoundly diverse ways Along the way readers will not only discover how homileticians do theology homiletically but will deepen the way in which they understand their own preaching as a theological task Contributors include Ronald J Allen Professor of Preaching and Gospels and Letters at Christian Theological Seminary John S McClure Charles G Finney Professor of Preaching and Worship at Vanderbilt Divinity School Alyce M McKenzie George W and Nell Ayers Le Van Professor of Preaching and Worship at Perkins School of Theology Southern Methodist University Michael Pasquarello III Granger E and Anna A Fisher Professor of Preaching at Asbury Theological Seminary Luke A Powery Dean of the Chapel and Associate Professor of the Practice of Homiletics at Duke University Teresa Stricklen Eisenlohr Ph D Associate for Worship Office of Theology and Worship at the Presbyterian Church U S A Lament-Driven Preaching Eliana Ah-Rum Ku,2024-03-04 This book challenges Christian communities to engage in lament a mode of existence characterized by impassioned expression witnessing and personal or social protest in the face of evil and injustice reflecting a profound yearning for God s saving presence Divine lament responds to and expresses solidarity with human suffering unveiling multiple facets of God s image and demonstrating a profound sense of divine compassion Drawing on the Book of Lamentations Korean concepts related to suffering han and hanpuri the Paschal Triduum narratives and recent homiletic discourses on suffering the author investigates how complex issues related to grief and hope can be addressed in preaching without diminishing the harsh reality of affliction Designed to assist preachers this book encourages a more intentional approach to addressing suffering specifically by advocating for lament as a transitional space between affliction and hope Furthermore readers are invited to contemplate the significance of the church which within a world in decline embodies the body of Christ manifesting both the demise and resurrection of God
