Crossing European Boundaries Jaro Stacul,Christina Moutsou,Helen Kopnina,2006-12-01 At the turn of the millennium the state of Europe is fluid and contested yet how this affects the everyday lives of European peoples and the ways they experience the social world they live in remains largely unexplored Drawing upon ethnographic information from diverse European settings this volume points to the contradictions that the project of a Europe without boundaries involves In illustrating how the removal of political boundaries can create other boundaries the articles in this volume provide alternatives to recent theorising on complexity which takes little account of human agency Crossing European Boundaries Jaro Stacul,Christina Moutsou,Helen Kopnina,2005 A Companion to the Anthropology of Europe Ullrich Kockel,Máiréad Nic Craith,Jonas Frykman,2015-12-14 A Companion to theAnthropologyof Europe BLACKWELL COMPANIONS TO ANTHROPOLOGY A Companion to the Anthropology of Europe The volume also deserves a place on the shelves of academic libraries as well as the larger public library Reference Reviews Summing Up Highly recommended All academic levels libraries Choice This important collection challenges all anthropologists to re examine the importance of European perspectives on the most provocative debates of our time It transcends regional interests to highlight the complex intellectual landscape of our field Tracey Heatherington University of Wisconsin Milwaukee This significant volume critically interrogates assumptions about Europe as an idea and a place for research It provides fresh perspectives on the past and future of anthropological studies of Europe Deborah Reed Danahay SUNY at Buffalo President of the Society for the Anthropology of Europe A Companion to the Anthropology of Europe offers a survey of contemporary Europeanist anthropology and European ethnology and a guide to emerging trends in this geographical field of research Utilizing diverse approaches to the anthropological study of Europe Kockel Nic Craith and Frykman provide a synthesis of the different traditions and contemporary practices Investigating the subject both geographically and thematically the companion covers key topics such as location heritage experience and cultural practices Written by leading international scholars in the field the volume constitutes the first authoritative guide for researchers instructors and students of anthropology and European studies Migration In, From, and to Southeastern Europe: Ways and strategies of migrating Klaus Roth,Jutta Lauth Bacas,2011 This volume is part two of a selection of articles on migration movements in to and from Southeast Europe It aims at a better understanding of the complex migration processes which deeply affect Balkan societies both presently and in the past The articles presented here focus on the ways and strategies of migrants on irregular migration in and to as well as on transit migration through the region while others deal with the effects of return migration on Balkan societies They present empirical findings on migration which are of interest not only for experts on Southeast Europe and on migration processes in general but also for those interested in European integration and in the consequences of EU migration policies

The Franco-Mauritian Elite Tijo Salverda,2015-04-01 Mauritian independence in 1968 marked the end of a regime favorable to the Franco Mauritians the island s white colonial elite Now in postcolonial Mauritius this group is faced with a much more diverse power constellation and often feels in competition with others vying for their privileges Though this is a clear departure from the colonial heydays Franco Mauritians have been able to continue their elite position into the early twenty first century This book focuses on the power of white elites still lingering on in postcolonial realities and with regards to elites and power in general addresses anew how an elite group aims to prolong its position over time Footprints in Paradise Andrea E. Murray,2017-06-01 The economic imperative of sustainable tourism development frequently shapes life on small subtropical islands In Okinawa ecotourism promises to provide employment for a dwindling population of rural youth while preserving the natural environment and bolstering regional pride Footprints in Paradise explores the transformation in community and sense of place as Okinawans come to view themselves through the lens of the visiting tourist consumer and as their language landscapes and wildlife are reconstituted as treasured and vulnerable resources The rediscovery and revaluing of local ecological knowledge strengthens Okinawan or Uchinaa cultural heritage despite the controversial presence of US military bases amidst a hegemonic Japanese state Learning From the Children Jacqueline Waldren,Ignacy-Marek Kaminski,2012-06-01 Children and youth regardless of their ethnic backgrounds are experiencing lifestyle choices their parents never imagined and contributing to the transformation of ideals traditions education and adult child power dynamics As a result of the advances in technology and media as well as the effects of globalization the transmission of social and cultural practices from parents to children is changing Based on a number of qualitative studies this book offers insights into the lives of children and youth in Britain Japan Spain Israel Palestine and Pakistan Attention is focused on the child s perspective within the social power dynamics involved in adult child relations which reveals the dilemmas of policy planning and parenting in a changing world Americans in Tuscany Catherine Trundle,2014-07-01 Since the time of the Grand Tour the Italian region of Tuscany has sustained a highly visible American and Anglo migrant community Today American women continue to migrate there many in order to marry Italian men Confronted with experiences of social exclusion unfamiliar family relations and new cultural terrain many women struggle to build local lives In the first ethnographic monograph of Americans in Italy Catherine Trundle argues that charity and philanthropy are the central means by which many American women negotiate a sense of migrant belonging in Italy This book traces women s daily acts of charity as they gave food to the poor fundraised among the wealthy monitored untrustworthy recipients assessed the needy and reflected on the emotional work that charity required In exploring the often ignored role of charitable action in migrant community formation Trundle contributes to anthropological theories of gift giving compassion and reflexivity The Nomads of Mykonos Pola Bousiou,2008-04-01 This is the ethnography of the Mykoniots d lection a gang of romantic adventurers who have been visiting the island of Mykonos for the last thirty five years and have formed a community of dispersed friends Their constant return to and insistence on working acting and creating in a tourist space offers them an extreme identity which in turn is aesthetically marked by the transient cultural properties of Mykonos Drawing semiotically from its ancient counterpart Delos whose myth of emergence entails a spatial restlessness contemporary Mykonos also acquires an idiosyncratic fluidity In mythology Delos the island of Apollo was condemned by the gods to be an island in constant movement Mykonos as a signifier of a new form of ontological nomadism semiotically shares such assumptions The Nomads of Mykonos keep returning to a series of alternative affective groups largely in order to heal a split between their desire for autonomy rebellion and aloneness and their need to affectively belong to a collectivity Mykonos for the Mykoniots d lection is their permanent stopover their regular comings and goings discursively project onto Mykonos space an allegorical discordant notion of home Managing Invisibility Hande Sözer,2014-07-24 In Managing Invisibility Hande S zer examines complicated invisibilities of Alevi Bulgarian Turks a double minority which faces structural discrimination in Bulgaria and Turkey While the literature portrays minorities visibility as a requirement for their empowerment or a source of their surveillance the book argues that for such minorities what matters is their control over their own visibility To make this point it focuses on the concept protective dissimulation a strategy of self imposed invisibility It discusses cases indicating Alevi Bulgarian Turks strategies of dealing with historically changing majorities in their larger societies and argues that dissimulation actually reinforces the intergroup distinctions for the minority s members The data for the book was gathered during 18 months of ethnographic fieldwork in Bulgaria and Turkey
