Thorne, 2022-05-31 The Battle of Tsushima the epic battle between the Japanese and Russian navies on May 27 28 1905 is examined in far greater detail than ever before Making extensive use of official records personal accounts and a wealth of untouched information on the Russian Navy's activities this battle little known about by a general readership is brought vividly to life Also the immense coaling operation with the names of all the colliers is described in very informative and sometimes amusing detail The later stages of the battle its details often described as lost in the fog of battle are clearly portrayed as is the chaotic high speed night action when numerous Japanese destroyer and torpedo boat flotillas terrorised the Russian seamen Exhaustive examination of Japanese flotilla records has made it possible to reproduce an exciting and very informative account placing the reader on board the attacking vessels suffering collisions and gunfire as they career in and around the Russian battle line while the human side of both participants brings into sharp focus the horrors of war Tsushima was not only the culmination and climax of the pre Dreadnought era it was the most decisive naval battle ever fought Other battles are more well known but they did not achieve such a result neither in their decisiveness nor in bringing the war in which they were fought to a conclusion Journal of the Royal United Service Institution, Whitehall Yard, 1901
