Freedman, 2013-08-13 How Can You Represent Those People is the first ever collection of essays offering a response to the Cocktail Party Question asked of every criminal lawyer: A must read for anyone interested in race, poverty, crime, punishment, and what makes lawyers tick.

Michigan Law Review, 2010-05

Guilty People Abbe Smith, 2020-01-17 Criminal defense attorneys protect the innocent and guilty alike, but the majority of criminal defendants are guilty. This is as it should be in a free society. Yet there are many different types of crime and degrees of guilt, and the defense must navigate through a complex criminal justice system that is not always equipped to recognize nuances. In Guilty People, law professor and longtime criminal defense attorney Abbe Smith gives us a thoughtful and honest look at guilty individuals on trial. Each chapter tells compelling stories about real cases she handled; some of her clients were guilty of only petty crimes and misdemeanors, while others committed offenses as grave as rape and murder. In the process, she answers the question that every defense attorney is routinely asked: How can you represent these people? Smith's answer also tackles seldom-addressed but equally important questions such as: Who are the people filling our nation's jails and prisons? Are they as dangerous and depraved as they are usually portrayed? How did they get caught up in the system? And what happens to them there? This book challenges the assumption that the guilty are a separate species unworthy of humane treatment. It is dedicated to guilty people, every single one of us.
