Nevertheless, her teachers and parents are concerned about her academic progress and wonder if she is ready for fourth grade. Tiffany has begun saying that she is "stupid," "can't learn anything," and that she hates school. Her parents, Michael and Patty, are worried. They have watched their once happy little girl who loved school change to a child who begs to stay home, has stomachaches during homework, and cries herself to sleep.

Her older brother, who has been diagnosed with learning disabilities that primarily impact language, is in middle school, where he is doing fairly well with some support for reading. Tiffany has received daily resource room special education support for reading, and she is taking
