Critical Issues in Education Jack L. Nelson, Stuart B. Palonsky, Mary Rose McCarthy, 2020-08-12 Critical Issues in Education examines three questions that are at the core of the education debate in the United States What interests should schools serve What knowledge should schools teach How do we develop the human environment of schools When answering these queries the authors advocate the use of critical thinking which includes dialogue and dialectic reasoning Dynamic and interactive dialogue requires listening and assessment while dialectic stimulates the development of a creative response that encompasses both sides of an issue When applied these approaches engender an informative and stimulating discussion In order to explore the depth of current educational issues the Ninth Edition considers 15 topics providing supporting evidence and reasoning for two divergent views These issues include violence in schools the role of technology gender equity multiculturalism inclusion and disability and school choice Both civic and professional discussions regarding improvements will have consequences for students teachers and society As a result educational views and the social landscape in which they reside deserve critical study

Critical Issues in China's Growth and Development Eden S.H. Yu, 2017-11-30 In approximately two decades China has transformed from a stagnant socialist economy to one that is vibrant and largely market oriented Given China's size rapid economic growth and her increasing importance as an economic and political power the country's growth and development have aroused major interest among academics and policymakers worldwide Written by a distinguished group of economists this volume offers insight and in depth analysis of a wide range of issues related to China's growth and development from the role of higher education in the country's economic growth to socioeconomic issues such as stock market manipulation and rural urban migration The contributors are established scholars in the field and their research methodologies are at the frontier of modern analytical economics including economic dynamics and computable general equilibrium analysis The volume will be of interest to students and researchers in the areas of Chinese economic studies finance and international economics international business and transitional economy Essential Christianity Keith Sherlin,2006-06 What are the essentials to the Christian faith How can you know and find God's will What doctrines comprise the foundation to a Christian life What should church leadership look like What experiences mark a healthy Christian These questions and more are answered in this book If you are looking for one book that can cover the whole Christian life then this book is for you as you seek to Love a faithful faith that honors God while learning to experience his goodness daily Critical Issues in Policing Roger G. Dunham,Geoffrey P. Alpert,1989 Emerging Technologies for Next Generation Learning Spaces Bosede Iyiade Edwards,Nurbiha A. Shukor,Adrian David Cheok,2021-08-07 This book discusses the development of the next generation learning spaces with emerging technologies These spaces result from the combined needs of classroom stakeholders such as instructors and learners with classroom elements such as tools and technologies pedagogy and content The book presents discussions and studies on issues possibilities and implications of these changes for next generation education Novel ideas and studies on these all encompassing blended roles of technologies in next generation learning spaces are clearly presented Suggestions on how the benefits they offer can be maximized are also discussed Engaging learning technologies have remained central in education for assisting instructors to teach and learners to learn more effectively However recent technological growth is creating a system in which previous divides between key classroom concepts and stakeholders are getting progressively blurred This is giving rise to next generation learning spaces where elements and stakeholders are blended into one The book addresses the future of learning environments based on these perspectives e-Religion Anastasia Karaflogka,2014-12-18 Religion has flourished in cyberspace bringing individuals together helping to consolidate fringe religions promoting activism and evangelism and providing sites for the promotion and examination of specific issues E Religion is one of the first systematic scholarly studies of religion on the Web Providing a clear outline of Web epistemology and theory the book outlines the key methodologies for the study of e religions The book will be invaluable to students of religion sociology and technology Critical Issues in Judicial Affairs: Current Trends in Practice Wanda L. Mercer,1996-07-12 In the past two decades judicial administrators have become increasingly concerned with training both newcomers and veterans in the field and networking among professionals concerned with the administration of student discipline This sourcebook provides judicial administrators with practical information and guidelines in many aspects of student discipline While the authors often rely on legal precedent and case law this issues oriented handbook also deals with current trends and recent topics of interest in judicial affairs This is the 73rd issue of the journal New Directions for Student Services For more information about the series please see the Journals and Periodicals page The American Ideal Peter C. Carafiol,1991 This work argues that American literary scholarship enshrines a reactionary vision of history of narrative and of America itself Carafiol examines the way idealist assumptions have been essential to doing American literary history and unwraps the implications of that symbiosis for current debates about the aims and methods of literary history in general Carafiol directs his critique not only at traditional approaches to American literature but also at the most influential recent efforts by New Historicists and cultural critics to revise that tradition Reconsidering the debate between ahistorical and historical models of literary study he argues that works by such writers like Emerson and Thoreau subvert the claims of critics on both sides Such writing is important he proposes not as timeless art or as social document but as a voice that can speak powerfully in contemporary conversations challenging literary critics in all fields to reconsider their critical assumptions and professional practices
