Designing An Older Adult Ministry:

Designing an Older Adult Ministry Richard H. Gentzler, 1999 Building on the success of Designing a Ministry by with and for Older Adults author Rick Gentzler gives readers new ways to develop and strengthen ministries with older adults providing information about the needs and life issues of older adults tools to help congregations evaluate their current situation models for ministry with older adults suggested resources For more information on ministries with older adults contact the Center on Aging Older Adult Ministries or call the toll free number 877 899 2780 extension 7177 An Age of Opportunity Richard H. Gentzler, 2018-05-01 A companion to the author's earlier book Designing an Older Adult Ministry Discipleship Resources 1999 this book will provide new information and outline ways to develop and strengthen ministries by with and for older adults that can and will enhance the spiritual growth and well being of people of all ages The church is beginning to recognize that there are vast numbers of older people in its membership It is becoming aware of its indebtedness to them for the leadership support service and faith that has made the church of today possible The church is uniquely positioned to help older adults respond to the challenges of aging to see the tremendous potentialities in the lives of older adult for making the church and community better and to assist older people as they experience new meaning and purpose in their later lives Chapters include Why Older Adult Ministries Understanding the Aging Process Aging and the Spiritual Journey The New Seniors Boomers Intentional Ministry by with and for Older Adults Organizing for Intentional Ministry in the Local Church Organizing for Intentional Ministry in the Conference Congregational Care Ministry Additional Ideas for Intentional Ministry and Trends in Aging Appendixes include a Facts about Aging quiz information on creating and using older adult surveys and suggested resources for further reading and study Aging & Ministry in the 21st Century Richard H. Gentzler, 2008 The church is in the hands of its elders While the popular perception is that the aged are needy and infirm Gentzler affirms that the majority of older adults have plenty to give The church needs to tap into their wisdom energy experience and talents Gentzler stresses that older adult ministries need to be by and with elders as well as for them since participants will represent all stages of retirement and activity levels In addition to the practical issues of programming Gentzler takes on more difficult topics of aging including chronic conditions depression and death He also recommends that churches pay special attention to the needs of the Baby Boomer generation since they are now becoming the older adults who will determine the church's path for years to come As Boomers have cycled through their various life stages they passed through hippie and yuppie to become abbies aging Baby Boomers Gentzler writes But don't tell Boomers they're aging They really do expect to stay young and see getting old as an option rather than a reality The Leader's Guide is here

Designing a Ministry By, With, and for Older Adults Richard H. Gentzler (Jr), 1993 Ministering to Older Adults Donald Koepke, 2013-10-18 Learn how to focus your ministry's programs and services on the elderly By 2030 20% of the people living in the United States will be age 65 or older with unique spiritual needs that can affect their physical and mental well being Ministering to Older Adults answers the critical need for a ministry that doesn't center primarily on youth and families in its outreach instead presenting a step by step guide to developing a ministry for the aged that is focused on the needs and resources of each congregation This program has been used effectively with nearly 50 congregations both large and small to create a focused older adult ministry No two congregations are alike The resources perspectives and skills of each congregation are different as are the needs of its members Ministering to Older Adults provides a framework for use by planning groups within communities of any religious tradition The book presents a process that includes essential questions that allow planning groups to develop answers that fit the needs cultural history and structure of their individual congregations Ministering to Older Adults is divided into three sections The Fundamentals defining your audience your mission and the skills and existing programs that can be brought to the planning process Programming Possibilities spiritual needs based on the aging process continued learning for older adults opportunities to serve and be served providing quality pastoral care and community building Putting it All Together deciding on a direction using desired outcomes for evaluation establishing target dates and ongoing evaluation Ministering to Older Adults also includes forms and charts to help in the planning process The book is an invaluable resource for clergy ministry committees and planning groups and staff persons responsible for older adult ministries

The Older Adult as Learner D. Barry Lumsden, 1985 Guidelines for Leading Your Congregation 2013-2016 - Adult Ministries Carol F. Krau, 2012-11 The adult ministry life span is the greatest and most diverse of any age level because it can encompass seven or more decades An adult ministry that includes all adults encourages people to grow and mature in faith so they may be vital disciples for a lifetime Your congregation will have decided what kind of structure is needed to plan for adult faith formation and discipleship Your position title may be Coordinator of Adult Ministries Team Leader for Adult Discipleship Coordinator of Singles Ministries or some other title indicating that you are a leader in adult ministries Your role
