Teaching Technology in Libraries Carol Smallwood, Lura Sanborn, 2017-01-12 Libraries are charged with fostering new skills and capabilities a challenging task in an era of rapid technological change Developing new ways of teaching and learning within budget and time constraints is the key to keeping up to date Written by librarians this collection of new essays describes an array of technology outreach and instruction programs from the theoretical to the practical for public academic and school libraries based on case studies and discussions of methodology Content includes out of the box lessons outreach successes and technology instruction programs applicable to patrons and staff at public academic and school libraries

Toward a 21st-Century School Library Media Program Esther Rosenfeld, David V. Loertscher, 2007-10-15 This collection of enlightening and stimulating articles written by some of the most important figures in school librarianship demonstrates how teacher librarians classroom teachers and administrators can work together to create a 21st century school library media program With topics that emphasize student success leadership partnerships curriculum design collaborative planning and teaching literacy 21st century skills emerging technologies and so much more this compendium brings together the best of the best discussions The practicing teacher librarian as well as the student seeking to expand his or her knowledge of the field will find this compilation especially beneficial in providing an overview of the most critical issues related to the role the teacher librarian plays in their school The articles previously published in the peer reviewed Teacher Librarian The Journal for School Library Professionals with several included from the magazine VOYA Voice of Youth Advocates reveal how school libraries and teacher librarians are moving forward to meet the challenges of this new century Shared Print Repositories Karen Fischer,Faye

Chadwell,2015-09-07 The chapters in this book address the growing endeavours of shared print repositories and programs in academic libraries representing a global perspective with authors from Canada Australia Great Britain and the United States This book illustrates the complicated processes and challenges of coordinating selection determining storage agreements distributed or shared ownership concerns business models and a host of collection maintenance issues These efforts entail immense collaboration regardless of the size of the project Luckily librarians are good at collaboration but not always good at forging ahead into an uncertain future with regard to print collections As echoed by authors in this book the future is indeed uncertain but undoubtedly libraries who partner together to address print archiving dilemmas will be better prepared for whatever the future holds This book was originally published as a special issue of Collection Management Functional

Future for Bibliographic Control Shawne D. Miksa,2017-07-05 The quest to evolve bibliographic control to an equal or greater standing within the current information environment is on going As information organizers we are working in a time where information and communication technology ICT has pushed our status quo to its limits and where innovation often needs the pressure of do or die in order to get started The year 2010 was designated as the Year of Cataloging Research and we made progress on studying the challenges facing metadata and information organization practices However one year of research is merely a drop in the bucket especially given the results of the Resource and Description and Access RDA National Test and the Library of Congress decision to investigate the possibility of transitioning the MARC21 format This book addresses how information professionals can create a functional environment in which we move beyond just representing information resources and into an environment that both represents and connects at a deeper level Most importantly it offers insight on transitioning into new communities of practice and awareness by reassessing our purpose re charting our efforts reasserting our expertise in the areas that information organizer have traditionally claimed but are losing due to stagnation and lack of vision This book was published as a double special issue of the Journal of Library Metadata Personal

Development in the Information and Library Professions Sylvia Webb,Diana Grimwood-Jones,2004-08-02 This guide looks at personal development from the perspective of the individual as well as the organization they work for The purpose of the book is to define personal development in the context of the information and library profession It discusses what personal development can contribute to the respective performances of the individual the information service and the employing organization and ways in which this can be carried out The growing range of qualities and skills required by information workers in today s constantly changing working environment are discussed along with the role of the formal and informal continuing of education and training

Knowledge Management for Libraries Valerie Forrester, 2015-08-14 Libraries are creating dynamic knowledge bases to capture both tacit and explicit knowledge and subject expertise for use within and beyond their organizations In this book readers will learn to move policies and procedures manuals online using a wiki get the most out of Microsoft SharePoint with custom portals and Web Parts and build an FAQ knowledge base from reference management applications such as LibAnswers Knowledge Management for Libraries guides readers through the process of planning developing and launching their own library knowledge base This A Z guidebook will teach you how to implement tools that will help your colleagues communicate collaborate share documents and files and greatly clarify and simplify workflows through projects such as How to Create a Document Management System with Google Drive How to Construct a Web Based Knowledge Base Using Wiki Software How to Set Up a Private Social Network for Your Staff with Yammer How to Create an Organizational Commons with WordPress How to Build a Library Intranet Site in Microsoft SharePoint How to Create a Dynamic FAQ with Springshare s LibAnswers
