

Critical College Reading (REA 054) — Reading and Reasoning Critically

Critical Thinking

- Weighing Claims—the ability to assess the strength of reasons and reasoning up against a counterpart.
- Definitions—What does the word mean independently?—Potential separation from actual use.
- What does the word mean in the way the author is intending it?—What is the word trying to do. “e.g. concretely”
- What baggage or associations does it hold in the setting/situation in which it is used? “e.g. Spiritual”

Evaluating/Presumptions

- Evaluating Information—Does the author reference outside authorities? Does the author depend on the use of facts/evidence to make the claim?
- Questioning Assumptions—What concepts are implied or beneath the statements? What needs to be true in order for the explicit statement to make sense?

Argumentative Ascension

- Judgments—How does one qualify or finally come to a conclusion given the reasons and material presented?
- What ultimately needs to happen to convince that the presentation is truthful?
- When is point made—a concept communicated? When is the reader still left wanting, in terms of being persuaded?

Knowledge and Persuasion

- Knowledge presupposes that the more access one has to it, the more likely one is to tell the truth in relation to the subject.
- Knowledge always admits that there are levels of knowing and that having access to it allows one the privilege of authority.
- Forms of knowledge need to be in combination with one another in order to maintain themselves. The knowledge in one domain always influences what is positively known in another.

Critical Reading For College And Beyond:

Critical Reading for College and Beyond Deborah Daiek, 2003-10-07 Critical Reading for College and Beyond uses regular journaling and self assessment techniques to help students hone their abilities to read analyze and respond to textbooks and other college appropriate materials

Critical Reading for College and Beyond Deborah B. Daiek, Nancy M. Anter, 2004 Critical Reading for College and Beyond focuses on teaching intermediate to advanced level developmental education students the critical reading and thinking strategies they need to get the most out of college textbooks and other reading material The text teaches students specific steps to follow in organizing textbook information so that they can remember it and access it effectively when needed Regular journaling and self monitoring through CATs Classroom Assessment Techniques allow students to make adjustments necessary to improving their reading skills Publisher's description Thinking Beyond the Content Nolan J. Weil, Raymond Cepko, 2008 Aimed at more advanced college or college bound ESL readers a theme based text designed to challenge its readers to read closely for understanding but also to go beyond the literal content of a text P 4 of cover Writing for College and Beyond James Rovira, 2019-04-29 Writing for College and Beyond prepares students for their future college classes by covering the strategies common to most college writing In the process of being prepared for college writing however students are also taught chapter by chapter how these writing skills will carry forward into their future professional lives beyond college One of the least expensive first year writing textbooks on the market the text isn't inflated with material that most instructors and students won't use and several exercises encourage students to use either provided web or YouTube links as texts supporting their practice for longer assignments If you're a first year writing instructor and would like to consider this text for your course email the author at brightfuturespublishing at gmail dot com for a desk copy
