Writing Anthropology F. Bouchetoux,2013-12-03 A call for new methods for anthropology this book explores the nature of anthropological knowledge and the conditions of integration and communication with people Starting with an analysis of anthropologists guilt Fan addresses issues of reflexivity reciprocity and respect then builds on this to evaluate how researchers generate knowledge

Power through Testimony Brieg Capitaine,Karine Vanthuyne,2017-04-03 Power through Testimony documents how survivors are remembering and reframing our understanding of residential schools in the wake of the 2007 Indian Residential Schools Settlement Agreement and the Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC a forum for survivors families and communities to share their memories and stories with the Canadian public The commission closed and reported in 2015 and this timely volume reveals what happened on the ground Drawing on field research during the commission and in local communities the contributors document how residential schools have been understood and represented by various groups and individuals over time how survivors are undermining colonial narratives about residential schools and how the churches and former school staff are receiving or resisting the new residential school story Ultimately Power through Testimony questions the power of the TRC to unsettle dominant colonial narratives about residential schools and transform the relationship between Indigenous people and Canadian society
