Crossing Over Narratives Of Palliative Care:

Crossing Over David Barnard, Anna M. Towers, Patricia Boston, Yanna Lambrinidou, 2000-03-02 Crossing Over provides a unique view of patients families and their caregivers striving together to maintain comfort and hope in the face of incurable illness The narratives weave together emotions physical symptoms spiritual concerns and the stresses of family life as well as the professional and personal challenges of providing hospice and palliative care Based on a vast amount of participant observation and in depth interviews Crossing Over moves far beyond dry technical manuals for symptom control and tired clichés about death with dignity to depict the sights sounds tastes and smells of the daily in patients homes and the palliative care unit It captures the breathtaking diversity of people's aspirations and ideals as they face death and the views of the professionals who care for them Anger and fear tenderness and reconciliation jealousy and love social support and falling through the cracks unexpected courage and unshakable faith all of these are part of facing death in late twentieth century North America and this book brings them to life in an extraordinary portrait of the processes of giving and receiving palliative care

Crossing Over David Barnard, Anna Towers, Patricia Boston, Yanna Lambrinidou, 2023 The revised edition of Crossing Over is a book of stories narratives of giving and receiving palliative care in the context of end of life It is not a textbook that portrays ideal palliative care or that prescribes specific management techniques Instead it presents stories of actual patients and families who have experienced terminal illness with the support of hospice or palliative care teams The narratives are derived from a three year qualitative ethnographic study of the experiences of patients families and caregivers

Crossing Over David Barnard, 2000 Crossing Over David Barnard, Anna Towers, Patricia Boston, Yanna Lambrinidou, 2023 Twenty richly detailed narratives vividly bring to life the experiences of dying and bereavement in Crossing Over weaving together emotions physical symptoms spiritual concerns and the stresses of family life as well as the professional and personal challenges of providing hospice and palliative care Crossing Over David Barnard, Anna Towers, Patricia Boston, Yanna Lambrinidou, 2023 The revised edition of Crossing Over is a book of stories narratives of giving and receiving palliative care in the context of end of life It is not a textbook that portrays ideal palliative care or that prescribes specific management techniques Instead it presents stories of actual patients and families who have experienced terminal illness with the support of hospice or palliative care teams The narratives are derived from a three year qualitative ethnographic study of the experiences of patients families and caregivers Crossing Over, 2000 This volume presents a series of case narratives following individual patients and families throughout the course of illness and death in the context of hospice and palliative care

Transforming the Culture of Dying David Clark, 2013-06-13 Transforming the Culture of Dying assesses the establishment of the Project on Death in America and evaluates its contributions to the development of the palliative care field and end of life care in American society Narrative and Stories in Health Care Yasmin

Gunaratnam, David Oliviere, 2009-04-09 The use of narrative methods has a long history in palliative care pioneered by Dame

Cicely Saunders founder of the modern hospice movement Narrative and Stories in Health Care provides a vibrant multidisciplinary examination of work with narrative and stories in contemporary health and social care with a focus on the care of people who are ill and dying It animates the academic literature with provocative real world examples from international contributors including palliative care service users and those working in the social and human sciences medicine theology and the creative arts Narrative and Stories in Health Care addresses and clarifies core issues What is a narrative What is a story What are some of the main methods and models that can be used and for what purposes What practical and ethical dilemmas can the methods entail in work with illness death and dying As well as highlighting the power of stories to create new possibilities the book also acknowledges the conceptual methodological and ethnical problems and challenges inherent in narrative work As the hospice and palliative care movement evolves to meet the challenges of 21st century health care this fascinating book highlights how narratives and stories can be attended to in ways that are productive ethical and caring

The Palliative Care and Hospice Caregiver's Workbook Lura L Pethtel, John D Engel, 2017-11-22 This educational workbook helps people who build compassionate relationships with dying people Accompanied by its trainer's guide it presents a comprehensive sequential learning program for caregivers in non medical capacities covering everything from self understanding to spiritual issues listening skills and expressive activities developing the skills awareness and resilience needed for this privileged and sensitive role The program includes a variety of learning experiences including large and small group activities discussion close reading creative writing self exploration and skill development and practice This is an invaluable resource for small groups of individuals who wish to volunteer in hospice or palliative care settings A copy of the guide for trainers is included in each pack of workbooks and is also freely available online The best resource I have seen to guide teachers and learners in this complex training process I predict that those of you who try it with your staffs and trainees will find that it bears fruit both for your patients and their families but also for the sustenance and personal development of the staff members themselves Timothy Quill M D in his Foreword

Palliative Care for Infants, Children, and Adolescents Brian S. Carter, Marcia Levetown, 2004-06-24 A case based clinical handbook Palliative Care for Infants Children and Adolescents combines a pragmatic approach to symptom management with a humanitarian approach emphasizing more abstract issues such as psychological support for both patient and caregiver SciTech Book News This practical guide provides professionals involved in pediatric end of life care with comprehensive information for hands on care in a single volume Home Health Care Nurse
