Capitalism 40 The Birth Of A New Economy Chinese Edition:

Classical Marxism in an Age of Capitalist Crisis William Briggs, 2019-03-14 Will capitalism survive forever Capitalism has always lived in and with crisis Wars revolutions economic depression and repeated recessions the threat of nuclear annihilation and ecological disaster have all failed to break the dominance of this economic and political system Challenging the predominance of capitalism in a world fraught with inequalities this book returns to classical Marxism to reaffirm its relevance It explores the contradictions within capitalism as well as explains why Marxism has been unable to mount a sustained challenge to capitalism In order to explore concrete alternatives in a period of increasing capitalist globalisation and crisis it goes on to present perspectives by which theory and practice might be reunited to building independent political and organisational structures A search for something better this volume will be an engaging read for scholars and researchers of politics especially political theory and political economy economics and sociology Ethnic Chinese

Entrepreneurship in Malaysia Michael Jakobsen, 2014-11-20 The study of ethnic Chinese in Southeast Asia has a long tradition What is most striking in these studies is just how difficult it is to generalise about this ethnic group in the region Whether or not they have been able to identify as Chinese has to a certain extent depended on different processes of social and political engineering which in turn make them more or less distinct as an ethnic group In the case of Malaysia national political schemes such as the affirmative action policy indirectly force the Malaysian ethnic Chinese to conceive of themselves as a coherent collective and yet when asked Chinese entrepreneurs in the maintain that despite the affirmative action policy ethnicity is not the a defining deciding factor when it comes to identifying business partners This book focuses on the consequences of these kinds of policies in the field of inter ethnic business practices and entrepreneurship in Malaysia within the wider context of the relationship between local national and global markets It focuses on the complexities of inter ethnic relations and in particular the strong economic position of the ethnic Chinese and their impact on the Malaysian economic scene as well as on the wider Southeast Asian region underlining the degree to which inter ethnic relations in Southeast Asia are crucial to understanding the political and economic complexities characteristic of characterizing the region In turn it takes small and medium sized enterprises as case studies and shows how they are being shaped and in return shape the society in which they constitute a part In doing so the book highlights how these companies not only relate to the domestic economy but also cater to the global economy and presents a compelling argument for the introduction of a glocalised perspective in international business studies Ethnic Chinese Entrepreneurship in Malaysia will be welcomed by students and scholars with an interest in Asian studies political economy international business studies inter ethnic relations and diaspora studies Interplaces Nicholas A. Phelps, 2017-08-04 Much of the world s economic activity takes place in between cities and nations the geographical containers that we have taken for granted for hundreds of years now In this book Nicholas Phelps provides a guide to this uncharted territory within urban and economic geography He highlights the importance of intermediary actors and processes in shaping this economy in between From the airports shopping malls and office parks that have sprung up on the road between cities to work done on the move in cars and trains to the decisions made by internationally mobile networks of experts in conferences and negotiations The geography of the economy in between is revealed as one involving four recurring and coexisting economic geographical formations the agglomeration the enclave the networks and the arena Phelps sets out a multidisciplinary perspective and agenda on the question of the how why and where much contemporary economic activity takes place

Restless China Perry Link,Richard P. Madsen,Paul G. Pickowicz,2013-03-08 This compelling book explores the explosive pace of change in China and how its citizens are grappling with a dramatically new world both in the public and private spheres China s stratospheric growth has made it the second largest economy in the world and one of the most unequal Marxist ideology and socialist ideals have almost completely collapsed replaced by a combination of materialism and assertive nationalism The vast migration of labor from countryside to city has continued apace The pressures of a hypercompetitive market economy are ripping apart the traditional family and threatening the environment Corruption has reached new heights The political system is even more rigid but perhaps more brittle than a decade ago There is enormous popular pride in the ascension of China to the rank of global superpower and general satisfaction in the material benefits that the poor as well as the rich have been gaining from an expanding economy But there is also great restlessness anger about structural injustice and political corruption and a search for new forms of spirituality and ethics to replace a collapsing moral order The question What does it mean in the new day to be Chinese lurks just beneath the surface This unique interdisciplinary book frames this central issue through an innovative set of case studies on such cutting edge topics as reality dating shows countercultural invented language star bloggers faith healers and subversive jokes Contributions by Jeremy Brown X L Ding Hsiung Ping chen William Jankowiak Shuyu Kong Perry Link Richard P Madsen David Moser Paul G Pickowicz Su Xiaokang Xiao Qiang Yunxiang Yan and Yang Lijun

China, the West and the Myth of New Public Management Paolo Urio, 2012-07-26 In the West innovations in new public management NPM have been regarded as part of the neoliberal project whilst in China these reforms have emerged from a very different economic and social landscape Despite these differences however similar measures to those introduced in the West have been adopted by the Chinese state which has largely abandoned the planned economy and adopted market mechanisms in the pursuit of improved economic efficiency and growth Evaluating the results of these reforms in both China and the West between 1978 and 2011 this book shows that despite substantial improvements in economic efficiency in both cases under consideration there have been considerable negative impacts on the distribution of wealth access to public services levels of poverty public health and the incidence of crime Further this book explores the different results of NPM in China and the West and the conclusions Paolo Urio draws have timely significance as he suggests that China has been able to change its policies more rapidly and thus more effectively respond to the challenges posed by the current economic crisis Drawing on both Western and Chinese sources this innovative book compares the consequences of their public management reforms taking into account the impact on both the economy and society As such this book will be of great interest to students and scholars working in the fields of Chinese studies Asian studies business economics strategic public management and comparative studies in capitalism and socialism
