Managing Innovation Stephan M. Wagner, Christian Busse, 2008 Capitalizing a Cure Victor Roy, 2023-01-24 Capitalizing a Cure takes us into the struggle over accessing a medical breakthrough to investigate the power of finance over business biomedicine and public health When sofosbuvir based medicines launched in 2013 they promised a cure for millions of patients worldwide with hepatitis C But their sticker shock the drug was dubbed the 1 000 a day pill intensified a global debate over the pricing of new medicines Weaving extensive historical research with insights from political economy and science and technology studies Victor Roy demystifies an oft missed dynamic in this debate the reach of financialized capitalism into how medicines are made priced and valued His account travels between public and private labs Wall Street and corporate boardrooms public health meetings and health centers to trace the ways sofosbuvir based medicines became financial assets dominated by strategies of speculation and extraction at the expense of access and care Provocative and sobering this book illuminates the harmful impact of allowing financial markets to supersede democracy and human health and points to the necessary work of building more equitable futures

Capitalizing on Investments in Science and Technology National Academy of Engineering, National Academy of Sciences, Institute of Medicine, National Academy of Sciences, National Academy of Engineering, Institute of Medicine, Committee on Science, Engineering, and Public Policy, 1999-03-18 Although the United States is currently capitalizing on its investment in science and technology effectively there remains much room for improvement This volume identifies the ingredients for success in capitalizing on such investments to produce national benefits assesses current U S performance and identifies future challenges The book cites specific examples and examines several cross cutting issues It explores the possibility that the national research portfolio is losing diversity as a result of less long term research in critical fields such as networking and materials It also examines the implications of imbalances in the supply of and demand for science and engineering talent in emerging interdisciplinary fields such as bioinformatics

Capitalizing on Creativity at Work Miha Škerlavaj, Matej Černe, Anders Dysvik, Arne Carlsen, 2016-03-25 How does one implement highly creative ideas in the workplace Though creativity fuels modern businesses and organizations capitalizing on creativity is still a relatively uncharted territory The crux of this issue is explored as contributors present and analyze remedies for capitalizing on highly creative ideas Editors Miha Škerlavaj, Matej Černe, Anders Dysvik and Arne Carlsen have gathered a large network of contributors across four continents to craft this relevant evidence based and holistic text Multiple levels, methods, approaches and perspectives are all considered while focusing on a single research question Chapters feature a combination of research based materials, stories and short cases to show what can be done to implement highly creative ideas in the workplace This extremely relevant subject will be of interest to a large number of organizations worldwide that are looking to tap into the potential of highly creative and possibly useful ideas to build their competitive advantage Specifically, management consultants in Human Resource Management, innovation, creativity coaching and or leadership will find this book useful It can also be used in Innovation Management MSc and MBA courses, executive education courses as well as for PhD researchers and innovation management scholars

Capitalizing on College Joshua Travis Brown, 2025-04-09 Capitalizing on College goes inside tuition driven colleges and universities to show how the competition for students led to an unsustainable building boom and what colleges did to pay for it Forced to innovate schools adopted enrollment strategies that led them to view the marginalized students they were supposed to be helping as dollars Through over 150 candid interviews with university leaders the book offers a timely and fascinating behind the scenes look at the financial challenges facing higher education and what the future holds for colleges and universities

Capitalizing on Innovation Robert Dujarric, Andrei Hagiu, Harvard Business School, 2009 Japan's industrial landscape is characterized by hierarchical forms of industry organization which are increasingly inadequate in modern sectors where innovation relies on platforms and horizontal ecosystems of firms producing complementary products Using three case studies: software, animation and mobile telephony we illustrate two key sources of inefficiencies that this mismatch can create First hierarchical industry organizations can lock out certain types of innovation indefinitely by perpetuating established business practices Second even when the vertical hierarchies produce highly innovative sectors in the domestic market the exclusively domestic orientation of the hierarchical industry leaders can entail large missed opportunities for other members of the ecosystem who are unable to fully exploit their potential in global markets
