

Car Rental Business Plan

INTRODUCTION

Car-rental agents use some puzzling terms. This fact sheet will familiarize you with some of the terms and options you face when you rent a car.

CHOOSING A CAR-RENTAL AGENCY

Before you reserve a car, know what model and options you need, and how much you can spend. This will help you avoid hasty or expensive decisions you will later regret. Before you choose, consider the following:

- Call several car-rental agencies for price estimates; most have toll-free numbers and websites. Many offer weekly, weekend and internet-only specials. If your plans are flexible, you may save money by renting a car when you can get a discount. Ask about any restrictions on special offers.
- Decide what model and size car you want, but realize that each car-rental agency may have its own classification system. The terms "compact," "mid-size," and "luxury" often differ among agencies.
- Additional fees could substantially increase an advertised base rate. Such fees include: collision damage waiver fees; refundable charges; airport surcharges and drop-off fees; fuel charges; mileage fees; additional-driver fees; under-age driver fees; out-of-state charges; equipment rental fees, and local special taxes on tourism and travel services.

LEARNING THE TERMS

Definitions of common additional fees follow. Asking about these fees before you sign your rental agreement may help you save money on your trip and avoid disputes when it is time to pay.

Collision Damage Waiver (CDW), in states that allow it, is an optional charge of $10-$20 a day. Car-rental agents may encourage you to buy it. Although they call it "collision damage" coverage, it is not technically collision insurance. Instead, it is a "guarantee" you buy from the agency that it will pay for damages to your rented car. However, under CDW, the agency will not pay for bodily injuries or damages to personal property. If you do not buy CDW coverage or are not covered by your own auto insurance policy, you could be liable for the full value of the car.

Some CDW's exclude coverage in certain circumstances. For example, coverage may be revoked if you damage the car when driving negligently, on unpaved roads, or out of the state where you rented the vehicle. Some companies void their CDW coverage if a driver drinks alcoholic beverages or someone is driving other than the one authorized on the rental contract.
