Changing The Questions Explorations In Christian Ethics:

Changing the Questions Margaret A. Farley, 2015 This introduction to and overview of the work of Margaret Farley one of the church's leading ethicists will be a valuable resource for students of public ethics sexual ethics and the ethics of relationships Essays from throughout Farley's long scholarly career both published and unpublished focus on the intersection of ethics and public life Changing the Questions also includes Farley's sermons as well as her essays on ecclesiology and feminism making it a far ranging summary of her interests and contributions to theology over the past four decades Publisher

Changing the Questions Margaret Farley, 2015-03-01 Love and Christian Ethics Frederick V. Simmons, 2016-12-15 At the heart of Christian ethics is the biblical commandment to love God and to love one's neighbor as oneself But what is the meaning of love Scholars have wrestled with this question since the recording of the Christian gospels and in recent decades teachers and students of Christian ethics have engaged in vigorous debates about appropriate interpretations and implications of this critical norm In Love and Christian Ethics nearly two dozen leading experts analyze and assess the meaning of love from a wide range of perspectives Chapters are organized into three areas influential sources and exponents of Western Christian thought about the ethical significance of love perennial theoretical questions attending that consideration and the implications of Christian love for important social realities Contributors bring a richness of thought and experience to deliver unprecedentedly broad and rigorous analysis of this central tenet of Christian ethics and faith William Werpehowski provides an afterword on future trajectories for this research Love and Christian Ethics is sure to become a benchmark resource in the field

Reenvisioning Sexual Ethics Karen Peterson-Iyer, 2022-04-01 In Reenvisioning Sexual Ethics Karen Peterson Iyer applies a feminist Christian framework to practical sexual issues facing young adults today from sexting and hook up culture to sex work and sex trafficking This feminist justice based approach to sexual ethics will facilitate meaningful discussion about sexual agency and flourishing Journal of Moral Theology, Volume 8, Special Issue 1 Matthew J. Gaudet, James F. Keenan, 2019-04-12 Introduction Matthew J Gaudet and James F Keenan S J University Ethics and Contingent Faculty James F Keenan S J Saying No to an Economy that Kills Undermining Mission and Exploiting Vocation in Catholic Higher Education Kerry Danner Adjunct Unionization on Catholic Campuses Solidarity Theology and Mission Debra Erickson The Threat to Academic Freedom and the Contingent Scholar Lincoln R Rice Contingency Gender and the Academic Table Karen Peterson Iyer The Spiritual Crisis of Contingent Faculty Claire Bischoff Departmental Chair as Faculty Advocate and Middle Manager Elizabeth Hinson Hasty Toward an Inclusive Faculty Community Matthew J Gaudet Iconoclastic Sex Henry Walter Spaulding, 2024-03-13 Christian sexual ethics operates from a place of privilege when it does not consider those impacted by its moral prescriptions A large majority of publications on Christian sexual ethics consider choices and images abstracted from lived conditions of the people called to make these decisions As such it leaves out many for whom sex is neither welcome nor a choice As such these same texts present images of sexual subjects that marginalize those that do not fit As the book presents sexuality both Christian and otherwise prioritizes a language of purity that strangles the life of those imaged impure The present book remedies this emphasis through the language of iconoclasm that blasphemes these images and opens theological reflection beyond the boundary of image based approaches Utilizing a qualitative study of survivors of trafficking and those who grew up under evangelical purity teachings Spaulding narrates sexual ethics in light of their testimonies and the theological resources of iconoclasm to articulate a more just and loving sexuality The new emphasis on sexual ethics not only resists the prescriptions that create the conditions of sex trafficking but the creation of new communities capable of solidarity and mutuality with those caught in the web of trafficking

All God's Animals Christopher Steck, 2019-10-01 The book is the first of its kind to draw together in conversation the views of the early Church contemporary biblical and theological scholarship and post conciliar teachings Steck develops a comprehensive Catholic theology of animals based on an in depth exploration of Catholicism's fundamental doctrines trinitarian theology Christology pneumatology eschatology and soteriology All God's Animals makes two central claims First we can hope that God will include animals of the present age in the kingdom inaugurated by Christ Second because of this inclusion our responses to animals should be guided by the values of the kingdom As Christians await the final liberation of all creation they are to be witnesses to God's kingdom by embodying its ideals in their relations with animal life Because the kingdom's fullness is yet to come and because our world remains marked by the wounds of sin however Christian treatment of animals will at times require acts that are at odds with the kingdom's ideals for example those causing suffering and death Steck examines each of these ideas and explores all of their complexities

Theological Dissent in Post-Vatican II Catholicism Anthony Devlin, 2025-12-03 This book examines the reality of theological dissent in the Catholic Church in the decades since the Second Vatican Council 1962 1965 and its relation to the problematic search for certainty and doctrinal consistency in addressing the complexities of moral decision making in the contemporary world Concern for the fundamental dignity of the human person and the tension between obedience and the ultimate freedom in conscience of the believer within the boundaries of the institution have informed successive episodes of dissent and their attempted suppression in the post Conciliar period Neuralgic issues in sexual ethics feminist theology the role of women in the Church and theologies of liberation have presented profound challenges to magisterial authority resulting in a fracturing of the faith community and the persistence of a progressive conservative divide The Church's Synodal turn meanwhile has presented new possibilities for a dialogical approach to dissent emphasizing discernment and principles of participation and co responsibility focusing on a dialectical approach to unsettled questions and inviting a diversity of theological expression Equally however conservative dissent and entrenched opposition to the possibility of transposing hitherto adversarial postures into a more constructive and collaborative frame present a growing threat to unity in a polarized world now increasingly tempted by totalitarianism and losing the capacity for constructive disagreement The book will be of particular interest to scholars and general readers in theology ecclesiology and religious studies

Ethics at the Edges of Law Cathleen Kaveny, 2017-10-02 In Ethics at the Edges of Law Cathleen Kaveny argues that religious moralists should treat the law as a valuable conversation partner rather than a mere instrument for enforcing judgments about morality and public policy Using cases and concepts from tort law contract law and criminal law Kaveny shows how they can be used to illuminate the work of some of the most important contemporary Christian ethicists
