Changing Race Changing Race:

Changing Race Clara E. Rodríguez, 2000-07 An introduction to the dynamic complexity of American ethnic life and Latino identity Latinos are the fastest growing population group in the United States Through their language and popular music Latinos are making their mark on American culture as never before As the United States becomes Latinized how will Latinos fit into America s divided racial landscape and how will they define their own racial and ethnic identity Through strikingly original historical analysis extensive personal interviews and a careful examination of census data Clara E Rodriguez shows that Latino identity is surprisingly fluid situation dependent and constantly changing She illustrates how the way Latinos are defining themselves and refusing to define themselves represents a powerful challenge to America s system of racial classification and American racism

Race, Ethnicity, and Place in a Changing America John W. Frazier, Eugene Tettey-Fio, 2006 Race, Politics and Social Change Les Back, John Solomos, 2002-01-31 Drawing on a wealth of original sources including interviews with politicians and activists this book explores the changing contours of the politics of race in the present social and political environment The volume seeks to go beyond abstract generalisations in order to develop an account which takes seriously the everyday processes that have shaped social understandings of race and politics in British society At the same time it links up to the broader debates about the impact of multiculturalism on contemporary politics the role of minorities in political life and the limits of democratic government Its account of the role of black politicians within the context of party politics will be of particular appeal to those interested in the interplay between mobilisation and the development of racial justice and equality Race Politics and Social Change will appeal to students of British Politics and Society and to all those with interests in the politics of race
