Character Compass Scott Seider, 2012-10-01 2013 American Educational Research Association's AERA Moral Development and Education Outstanding Book Award In Character Compass Scott Seider offers portraits of three high performing urban schools in Boston Massachusetts that have made character development central to their mission of supporting student success yet define character in three very different ways One school focuses on students moral character development another emphasizes civic character development and the third prioritizes performance character development Drawing on surveys interviews field notes and student achievement data Character Compass highlights the unique effects of these distinct approaches to character development as well as the implications for parents educators and policymakers committed to fostering powerful school culture in their own school communities

Teaching Character and Virtue in Schools James Arthur, Kristján Kristjánsson, Tom Harrison, Wouter Sanderse, Daniel Wright, 2016-07-15 Teaching Character and Virtue in Schools addresses the contemporary issues of quantification and measurement in educational settings The authors draw on the research of the Jubilee Centre at the University of Birmingham in order to investigate the concern that the conventional wisdom sound judgement and professional discretion of teachers is being diminished and control mistakenly given over to administrators policymakers and inspectors which in turn is negatively effecting pupils character development The book calls for subject competence to be complemented by practical wisdom and good character in teaching staff It posits that the constituent virtues of good character can be learned and taught that education is an intrinsically moral enterprise and that character education should be intentional organised and reflective The book draws on the Jubilee Centre's expertise in support of its claims and successfully integrates the fields of educational studies psychology sociology philosophy and theology in its examination of contemporary educational practices and their wider effect on society as a whole It offers sample lessons as well as a framework for character education in schools The book encourages the view that character education is about helping students grasp what is ethically important and how to act for the right reasons so that they can become more autonomous and reflective individuals within the framework of a democratic society Particularly interested readers will be educational leaders teachers those undertaking research in the field of education as well as policy analysts with a keen interest in developing the character and good sense of learners today

Concepts and Theories of Human Development Richard M. Lerner, 2018-04-19 Concepts and Theories of Human Development is the most comprehensive and in depth overview of the foundational theoretical contributions to understanding human development and the influence of these contributions for contemporary research and application in developmental science Since its initial publication in 1976 it has been an essential resource for students and professionals alike and has become the go to book for graduate students studying for their comprehensive exam on human development In this new Fourth Edition Richard M Lerner concentrates his focus on advanced students and scholars already familiar with the basic elements of major psychological theories The book discusses the assumptions involved in such topics as stage theories the nature nurture issue the issue of continuity discontinuity and the important role of philosophical ideas about theories in particular metatheories in understanding the links between theory and research It particularly focuses on relational developmental systems RDS metatheory exploring its roots in the 1930s following its development into the present day and contrasting it with the fundamentally flawed genetic reductionist models that continue to be circulated by scientists the media and the general public It discusses implications of theory for research methods and for applications aimed at the promotion of health positive development and social justice among diverse people across the life span

Muslim Educators in American Communities Charles L. Glenn, 2018-08-01 Political rhetoric and popular concern about the presence in the United States Canada and Western Europe of immigrants from predominantly Muslim societies has remained largely detached from the actual reality of the lives and the contributions of these immigrants and their children The studies presented here seek to correct this ignorant reaction by presenting objective information from schools that such immigrants have created and sustained The first looked at seven explicitly Islamic secondary schools focusing on the formation of character and American citizenship while the other studied public charter schools established by immigrants from Turkey focusing on academic outcomes Do faith based schools cause social divisions Do their students fail to become good citizens who can cooperate with those of other faiths This familiar accusation against Catholic and more recently against Evangelical schools is now directed against Islamic schools in Western societies The studies presented here offer objective information from schools established by Muslim immigrants across the United States with reassuring results Praise for Muslim Educators in American Communities Dr Charles Glenn takes us inside US Islamic schools and offers a rare insight into the thoughts and emotions of young American Muslims A must read for Non Muslims as well as Muslims his book provides a taste for those curious about what goes on in Islamic schools as well as evidence of the results of an Islamic School education Sufia Azmat Executive Director Council of Islamic Schools in North America Every wave of immigration throughout American history has brought with it an undertow of fear often centered on the religious schools new immigrants form In every instance those fears have proven unfounded and so they are today Through careful on the ground research Charles Glenn and colleagues take us into new Islamic secondary schools and discover the important role these faith based schools are playing in forming virtuous citizens capable and committed to being a positive influence within American civic life This book is a valuable and timely contribution James Davison Hunter Institute for Advanced Studies in Culture University of Virginia The Engaged Campus D. Butin, S. Seider, 2012-08-06 The Engaged Campus offers a set of emerging best practices and articulation of critical issues for faculty and administrators committed to developing strengthening or expanding majors or minors in community engagement at their respective institutions The Impact of Education Stephen Pickard, Michael Welker, John Witte, 2022-07-29 This book investigates the impact of education on the formation of character moral education and the communication of values in late modern pluralistic societies Scholars from four continents and many different academic fields are involved While the basic framework for the contributions is informed by Christian traditions the disciplines cover a significant range including theology education psychology literature anthropology law and business This makes for a rich variety of thematic concentrations and perspectives Readers will quickly sense that the educational foundations and trajectories of any given country are pervasive and have a significant reach into the fabric and shape of the society and its values making education a barometer of the well being of a people and their culture The result is a volume that will inform stimulate and challenge our understanding of the role of education in contemporary societies Teaching Character in the Primary Classroom Tom Harrison, Ian Morris, John Ryan, 2016-03-10 Teaching Character in the Primary Classroom provides an excellent and very accessible overview of the emerging field of character education It covers in detail the theory of character education as well as advice and guidance about how this should be applied in practice in primary schools Professor James Arthur University of Birmingham Character matters As more and more schools are choosing to teach

Character Education trainee and beginning teachers need to know more What is Character Education Can it really be taught How does children s learning benefit from discussions around character in the classroom How do I teach it What does good teaching of Character Education look like in the classroom Teaching Character Education in Primary schools tackles these questions and many more This is a practical guide to why and how we can teach character in primary schools It begins by exploring why character matters and considers what character is and importantly what it is not It goes on to discuss the place for teaching character in primary education and includes practical guidance on how it can be taught The text also looks at character beyond the classroom how parents and the wider community can be included in the teaching of character and how outdoor learning and education can contribute This book is written for all those who are new to teaching character
