Friendships Don't Just Happen! Shasta Nelson, 2013-02-12 This essential go to guide reveals how women can enhance their lives by creating valuable friendships in today's busy mobile world from nationally recognized friendship expert and CEO of GirlFriendCircles.com Every woman is searching for a happier healthier more fulfilling life Many realize the significant role that an intimate tightly knit circle of friends plays in creating a more fulfilling life but with hectic schedules frequent moves and life changes it's more important than ever for women to establish natural meaningful friendships that will contribute to their overall wellbeing In Friendships Don't Just Happen Shasta Nelson friendship expert and CEO of GirlFriendCircles.com reveals the most important proven steps processes and secrets vital to establishing the five different levels of friendships or Circles of Connectedness that women no matter their age or relationship status are longing for in today's stressful and mobile culture This revolutionary engaging guide will also benefit women who already feel rooted to fabulous friends with insightful principles that will help them maintain and enhance their current friendships Full of practical how to tips fun activities guiding questions and step by step instructions Friendships Don't Just Happen highlights several areas of developing lasting friendships teaching women how to Evaluate their current circle of friends Recognize what types of friends they are seeking based on career interests location and relationship status Create a prioritized friendship action plan Find extraordinary friends where to look and how to approach them Take initiative to jumpstart friendships and face fears of rejection Establish frientimacy trust and happiness through conversation and activities Maintain meaningful friendships and determine which ones are worthwhile Excerpt from Friendships Don't Just Happen There is a lie out there that real friendship just happens When I was new to San Francisco eight years ago I remember standing at a caf window on Polk Street watching a group of women inside huddled around a table laughing Like the puppy dog at the pound I looked through the glass wishing someone would pick me to be theirs I had a phone full of far flung friends phone numbers but I didn't yet know anyone I could just sit and laugh with in a caf It hit me how very hard the friendship process is I'm an outgoing socially comfortable woman with a long line of good friendships behind me And yet I stood there feeling very lonely And insecure And exhausted at just the idea of how far I was from that reality I knew I couldn't just walk in there and introduce myself to them Hi You look like fun women can I join you I would have been met with stares of pity No one wants to seem desperate even if we are We don't have platonic pick up lines memorized Flirting for friends seems creepy Asking for her phone number like we're going to call her up for a Saturday night date is just plain weird All the batting of my eyelashes wasn't going to send the right signals And so I turned away from the scene of laughter and walked away No unfortunately friendships don't just happen We Value Belonging Friendships may not happen automatically but what we crave about them sure seems to We all want to belong that need to be connected to others is an inherent desire We live our entire lives trying to fit in be known attract acceptance and experience intimacy We desperately want to have others care about us This book is about that hunger And more pointedly it is about listening to it and learning how to fulfill it Frientimacy Shasta Nelson, 2016-03-01 With the constant connectivity of today's world it's never been easier to meet people and make new friends but it's also never been harder to form meaningful friendships In Frientimacy award winning speaker Shasta Nelson shows how anyone can form stronger more meaningful friendships marked by a level of trust she calls frientimacy Shasta explores the most common complaints and conflicts facing female friendships today and lays out strategies for overcoming these pitfalls to create deeper supportive relationships that last for the long term Shasta is the founder of girlfriendcircles.com a community of women seeking stronger more fulfilling friendships and the author of Friendships Don't Just Happen In Frientimacy she teaches readers to reject the impulse to pull away from friendships that aren't instantly and constantly gratifying With a warm engaging and inspiring voice she shows how friendships built on dedication and commitment can lead to enriched relationships stronger and more meaningful ties and an overall increase in mental health Frientimacy is more than just a call for deeper connection between friends it's a blueprint for turning simple friendships into true bonds and for the meaningful and satisfying relationships that come with them The Aging of Aquarius Helen Wilkes, 2018-09-11 Live your passion and purpose and change the world as an empowered elder Your career has wound down the kids have moved and your schedule is clear for the next 30 years In your youth you cared about people and planet earth and you had grand visions of changing the world At some point those passions and that sense of purpose got buried under diapers and the 9 5 Still that old you remains alive Now with the rest of your life ahead you can be the change and make this next stage of your life the most powerful yet But where to start Helen Wilkes a retired professor and activist takes readers on an inspiring journey to find renewed purpose in retirement Along the way she helps readers navigate the transition to a post work identity by fanning the embers of lost passions and developing new interests Whether you are drawn to gardening clubs to social justice issues political campaigning ethical investing or creativity through the arts The Aging of Aquarius offers inspiration practical steps and extra resources to help reignite your passion your sense of purpose and to effect real change in the world as an empowered elder I Want You to Be Tomáš Halík, 2016-08-15 In his two previous books translated into English Patience with God and Night of the Confessor best selling Czech author and theologian Tom Halík focused on the relationship between faith and hope Now in I Want You to Be Halík examines the connection between faith and love meditating on a statement attributed to St Augustine amo volo ut sis I love you I want you to be and its importance for contemporary Christian practice Halík suggests that because God is not an object love for him must be expressed through love of human beings He calls for Christians to avoid isolating themselves from secular modernity and recommends instead that they embrace an active and loving engagement with nonbelievers through acts of servitude At the same time Halik critiques the drive for mere material success and suggests that love must become more than a private virtue in contemporary society I Want You to Be considers the future of Western society with its strong division between Christian and secular traditions and recommends that Christians think of themselves as partners with nonbelievers Halik's distinctive style is to present profound insights on religious themes in an accessible way to a lay audience As in previous books this volume links spiritual and theological philosophical topics with a tentative diagnosis of our times This is theology written on one's knees Halik is as much a spiritual writer as a theologian I Want You to Be will interest both general and scholarly readers interested in questions of secularism and Christianity in modern life
