State Capacity Building in Contemporary China Hiroko Naito, Vida Macikenaite, 2020-03-26 This volume explores the governing mechanism employed by the Chinese Communist Party CCP in the light of state capacity building It is built on the premise that regime type notwithstanding boosting state capacity and utilizing it in their political survival is of crucial concern for any political leader Xi Jinping who is no exception to this has called for the necessity to expand state capacity while he aims to centralize the power under the party This volume stands out as it offers a comprehensive view of Chinese party state especially under Xi Jinping The research presented here is built on the analysis of authentic datasets and materials It examines the CCP's relations with various state organs in the Chinese political system mainly administrative organs legislature the people's congresses judicial branch the people's court system as well as the military the People's Liberation Army and state owned enterprises This volume attempts to bring China closer to the field of comparative politics making it a more comparable case

Radicalism, Revolution, and Reform in Modern China Catherine Lynch, Robert B. Marks, Paul G. Pickowicz, 2011-03-31 This volume illuminates the relationship of China's radical past to its reformist present as China makes a way forward through very differently conceived and contested visions of the future In the context of early twenty first century problems and the failures of global capitalism is China's history of revolutionary socialism an aberration that is soon to be forgotten or can it serve as a resource for creating a more fully human and radically democratic China with implications for all of us Ranging from the early years of China's revolutionary twentieth century to the present the essays collected here look at the past and present of China with a view toward better understanding the ideas ideals and people who have dared to imagine radical transformation of their worlds and to assess the conceptual political and social limitations of these visions and their implementations The volume's chapters focus on these issues from a range of vantage points representing a spectrum of current scholarship The first half of the book brings new insights to understanding how early twentieth century intellectuals interpreted ideas that allowed them to break with China's past and to envision new paths to a modern future It treats of Chen Duxiu a founder of the Communist party Mao Zedong and Mao in relation to the non Communist Liang Shuming and with the Dalai Lama With continuing threads of nation and nationalities of peasants utopias and dystopias linking the chapters the book's second half looks broadly at the consequences of the implementations of radical ideas at the same time critiquing our accepted frameworks of analysis Moving up to the present the book investigates the effects of the reforms since the 1980s on long term environmental degradation and on the emergence of a capitalist rural economy It gives an unsparing view into contemporary rural China through independent films The book concludes with an analysis of the unshakable persistence of the shibboleth the rise of China in popul

Christian Missionaries, Ethnicity, and State Control in Globalized Yunnan Gideon Elazar, 2023-10-31 Following the Communist Revolution of 1949 missionaries were kicked out of China and proselytizing was outlawed However since the beginning of the reform era China has witnessed a massive return of missionary workers Today there are more Christians in church on a given Sunday in China than anywhere else on the globe This book investigates the interaction of Western missionaries ethnic minorities and Han Chinese converts with the Chinese state in an increasingly globalized China Based on extensive ethnographic fieldwork conducted in Yunnan it tries to make sense of the disparity between official state rhetoric and everyday reality Examining morality in the context of the free market system spatial practices linguistic activity and Christian welfare organizations Gideon Elazar reveals the ways in which the previously conflicting Communist Party and Christian civilizing projects have reached a measure of convergence enabling local authorities to treat missionaries with a degree of tolerance Elazar shows how this unofficial arrangement relates to the social realities and challenges of the reform era including ethnic culture and identity Yunnan s many social problems and the integration of ethnic minorities into the state system By exploring the continuously shifting social and religious borders negotiated by converts missionaries and state authorities in Southwest China this book sheds light on the larger issue of contemporary religion in China s global era It will be of interest to researchers of religion Christianity and minority groups in the People s Republic of China

Chinese State Owned Enterprises in West Africa Katy Ngan Ting Lam, 2016-12-08 This book investigates the globalization process of Chinese state owned enterprises SOEs in West Africa primarily in Benin and Ghana based on ethnographical studies It challenges the dominant vision of a powerful China in Africa and argues that the so called Chinese business advantages monolithic Chinese state and Chinese low cost advantages are non viable for sustaining Chinese business development in the continent Considering the Chinese SOEs globalization process in a relational approach this book examines how the triple embeddedness Chinese African and managerial shapes the Chinese SOEs globalization process over time and space in diverse dimensions and among different entities the Chinese state Chinese SOEs Chinese expatriates the African government African business partners African staff and the African society It illustrates that the Chinese central state has retreated deliberately from its SOE globalization in Africa The Chinese SOEs and Chinese expats are the major actors in initiating and inventing globalization strategies facing limited Chinese state support and the African neopatrimonial governance and social contexts Besides the personal trajectories from expatriation to social promotion of Chinese SOE expats interweave with the globalization turn localization of their SOEs in Africa Rejecting the linear static and binary vision of powerful China in powerless Africa the present study thus emphasizes power dynamics in Chinese SOEs globalization process are organic and pluralistic though in certain extent hierarchical second class Time and local relations are key elements constituting the real Chinese advantages for Chinese SOEs vis a vis their ultimate competitors not Western companies but other Chinese companies

Confucianism and Spiritual Traditions in Modern China and Beyond Fenggang Yang, Joseph Tamney, 2011-11-11 Confucianism is reviving in China and spreading in America This multidisciplinary volume includes philosophical and theological articulations of Confucianism and other spiritual traditions for the modern and globalizing world and empirical studies of and analytical reflections on Confucianism and other traditions in Chinese societies by historians sociologists and anthropologists      The Chinese Corporatist State Jennifer Hsu, Reza Hasmath, 2013 This book looks at how NGOs social organizations business associations trade unions and religious associations interact with the state and explore how social actors have negotiated the influence of the state at both national and local levels and examines how a corporatist understanding of state society relations can be reformulated as old and new social stakeholders play a greater role in managing contemporary social issues In turn the book goes on to chart the differences in how the state behaves locally and centrally and finally discusses the future direction of the corporatist state      Modern China Ke-wen Wang, CRSN Staff, 1997-11-10 Charts Western influence and national development Beginning with the mid 19th century when China encountered the West and began to enter the modern age this encyclopedia offers an overview of the world s largest and most populous nation The coverage includes not only major political topics but also surveys the arts business literature education journalism and all other major aspects of the nation s social cultural and economic life The encyclopedia also offers significant material on such often neglected subjects as women and minorities modern drama Sino French War the federalist movement overseas Chinese Mongolian independence and more Special emphasis throughout is on the dramatic changes that have taken place in the country since the end of World War II Provides an overview of the modern era The entries are written by China specialists who are thoroughly familiar with every aspect of the nation and its peoples While history predominates the articles cover all academic fields and include considerable material on recent decades as well as on earlier periods There are entries on national political leaders and key thinkers major events and trends in the nation s history institutions organizations and currents of thought that led to the emergence of the modern nation The encyclopedia s longer essays offer detailed and insightful surveys of censorship important eras literary movements powerful social groups anti imperialism campaigns Five Year Plans the Sino Vietnamese War economic breakthroughs and other vital topics The coverage is informed by a thorough exploration of the historical role of Chinese nationalism a potent force that was shaped by the need to retain national unity and independence under foreign assault      Force and Contention in Contemporary China Ralph Thaxton, 2016-08-08 This book shows how memories of Mao era suffering drive popular resistance to state power in authoritarian China      The Religious Question in Modern China Vincent Goossaert, David A. Palmer, 2011-03-15 Recent events from strife in Tibet and the rapid growth of Christianity in China to the spectacular expansion of Chinese Buddhist organizations around the globe vividly demonstrate that one cannot understand the modern Chinese world without attending closely to the question of religion The Religious Question in Modern China highlights parallels and contrasts between historical events political regimes and cultural movements to explore how religion has challenged and responded to secular Chinese modernity from 1898 to the present Vincent Goossaert and David A Palmer piece together the puzzle of religion in China not by looking separately at different religions in different contexts but by writing a unified story of how religion has shaped and in turn been shaped by modern Chinese society From Chinese medicine and the martial arts to communal temple cults and revivalist redemptive societies the authors demonstrate that from the nineteenth century onward as the Chinese state shifted the religious landscape consistently resurfaced in a bewildering variety of old and new forms The Religious Question in Modern China integrates historical anthropological and sociological perspectives in a comprehensive overview of China s religious history that is certain to become an indispensable reference for specialists and students alike
