Death and Dying John F. Szabo,2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill

Mortuary Science John F. Szabo,2002 Szabo presents a thorough bibliographical examination of the funeral industry and related subjects Most citations are annotated with special notes on editions and reprints

Death, Loss, and Grief in Literature for Youth Alice Crosetto,Rajinder Garcha,2012-11-21 All human beings encounter loss and death as well as the grief associated with these experiences It is therefore important for children and adolescents to understand that such events are inevitable and to learn how to accept loss and cope with their emotions In order to help children through their pain parents and caregivers need access to the proper resources that will help them discuss these topics and educational professionals need reliable resources for creating courses of study on these subjects In Death Loss and Grief in Literature for Youth Alice Crosetto and Rajinder Garcha identify hundreds of resources that will help educators professionals parents siblings guardians and students learn about coping with the loss of a loved one and the grief process These resources include books Internet sites and media titles aimed at students and those helping them through the grieving process Chapters in this volume include fiction and non fiction titles about the loss of a family member a friend and a pet as well as general reference resources curricular resources and websites Annotations provide complete bibliographical descriptions of the entries and each entry is identified with the grade levels for which it is best suited Reviews from recognized publications
