Ce Qui Nous Lie:

Ce qui nous lie - Un nouveau pacte pour le patrimoine européen Hermann Parzinger, 2021-02-10 Le patrimoine culturel de l'Europe est une mosaïque riche et bigarrée qui est le reflet de ce que nous sommes et de ce que nous aspirons devenir. Nous sommes tous responsables de cet héritage immense précieux et fragile. La pandémie de coronavirus a révélé que des imprévus pouvaient changer notre mode de vie en un clin d'œil. Dans l'avenir, d'autres menaces pourraient nuire à notre sécurité, notre santé et notre environnement, ainsi que nos structures et nos valeurs sociales, ou encore notre capacité de faire face à la concurrence sur les marchés mondiaux. Comment l'Europe peut-elle tenir sa promesse si nous ne réinventons et ne repensons pas la base même du projet européen et si nous ne trouvons pas ensemble des solutions innovantes et audacieuses pour un avenir meilleur et plus durable ? Nous avons besoin d'un nouveau pacte pour le patrimoine européen, une transformation axée sur le patrimoine de la société, de l'économie et de l'environnement européens. Hermann Parzinger est archéologue, historien et spécialiste du patrimoine culturel. En 2018, il a été nommé président exécutif d'Europa Nostra, la fédération paneuropéenne du patrimoine culturel, qui représente les organisations de la société civile désireuses de sauvegarder le patrimoine culturel et naturel de l'Europe. Depuis 2013, l'une des principales activités d'Europa Nostra est le programme des 7 Most Endangered, les sept sites les plus menacés, en partenariat avec l'Institut BEI. Il s'agit du quinzième essai de la série Grandes Idées créée par la Banque européenne d'investissement, The Contemporary Francophone African Intellectual Natalie Edwards, 2013-07-29 The Contemporary Francophone African Intellectual examines the issues with which the contemporary African intellectual engages: the fields she occupies, her residence and perspective, and her relations with the State and the people. In an increasingly economically deprived Africa, in which some states are ruled by dictators, what chances do people have of becoming intellectuals, using their critical faculties to challenge hegemony, enacting the transformative power of ideas in a public forum? Do intellectuals who remain in Africa run the risk of being swallowed into a vortex of hagiography? What is the responsibility of the intellectual in the face of an event such as the Rwandan genocide? What influence does religion have upon the contemporary intellectual's work? Is migration one of the only paths available for African intellectuals, a number of whom have been critiquing their continent from within Europe? This volume focuses on the intellectual's engagement across literature, philosophy, journalism and cultural criticism. It contains studies of established writers and philosophers as well as new voices. An African writer and public intellectual describes her own experience in and out of Africa; in one chapter, a Philosophy Professor discusses his intellectual trajectory; in another, Overall, this timely volume, which includes analysis of the work of intellectuals from North, East, West and Central Africa, problematizes our current understandings of the intellectual legacy of Africa and opens up new avenues into this understudied area.
