In the Lógos of Love James Heft, Una M. Cadegan, 2016 So much has changed about Catholic intellectual life in the half century since the end of the Second Vatican Council that it has become difficult to locate the core concepts that make up the tradition. In the Lógos of Love is a collection of essays that grew out of a 2013 conference on Catholic intellectual life co sponsored by the University of Dayton and the Institute for Advanced Catholic Studies at the University of Southern California. The essays written by scholars of theology history law and media studies of religion trace the history of this intellectual tradition in order to craft new tools for understanding the present day and approaching the future Each essay explores both the promise of Catholic intellectual life and its various contemporary predicaments How does a changed media landscape affect the way Catholicism is depicted and the way its adherents understand and communicate among themselves What resources can the tradition offer for reflection on new understandings of sexuality and gender How can and should US Catholic intellectual life embrace and enhance and introduce students to the new ways in which Catholicism is becoming a more global tradition What is the role of scholars in disciplines beyond theology Of scholars who are not Catholic Of scholars in universities not sponsored by Catholic religious orders or dioceses By providing context for and proposing responses to these questions the scholars invite discussion and reflection from a wide range of readers who have one important thing in common a stake in sustaining a vibrant flourishing intellectual tradition
