Reading Comprehension Passage

The Pied Piper

Once upon a time in a little town called Hamelin, the people were facing a big problem. The town was full of rats! They were everywhere, eating all the food and making a big mess. The people didn't know what to do. One day, a strange man came to the town. He was wearing colorful clothes and had a pipe in his hand. He said he could get rid of the rats for them. The man was known as the Pied Piper.

The Pied Piper started playing his magical pipe, and something amazing happened. All the rats in the town started following him. They couldn't resist the beautiful music. The Pied Piper led the rats to the river, and they all jumped in and drowned. The people were so happy! They thought their rat problem was finally solved. But when the Pied Piper went to the mayor to collect his reward, the mayor refused to pay him. He said the Piper didn't deserve it.

The Pied Piper was very angry. He decided to take revenge on the town. The next day, when the townspeople woke up, they were shocked to see that all the children were gone! The Pied Piper had played his magical pipe again, but this time, it was the children who followed him. They danced and laughed as they followed the Piper out of the town. The parents ran after them, but it was too late. The children disappeared into a big mountain, and the mountain closed up behind them.

The people of Hamelin were filled with sadness and regret. They realized they had made a big mistake by not paying the Pied Piper. From that day on, no one ever saw the children or the Pied Piper again. The town was left empty and quiet. The story of the Pied Piper became a lesson for everyone. It taught them to be fair and keep their promises, or else there might be consequences. And so, the legend of the Pied Piper of Hamelin lives on, reminding us of the importance of honesty and gratitude.
