

Comprehension Practice 3

Passage A

Read the passage and answer the questions that follow.

Cheryl is a bright student with a wonderful sense of humour. One day, when the teacher was not in class, she talked to a friend across the classroom and neglected her work. Before she knew it, her name was written on the board by the class monitor.

When the teacher returned, Cheryl was reprimanded and would be detained for five minutes during recess. Cheryl protested strongly but to no avail. She stared daggers at the class monitor and felt something brewing inside her. She decided to seek revenge.

During recess, she stayed in the classroom and waited until everyone had left. She took a bottle of medicated oil from her bag and smeared it all over one of the tables near the front of the classroom – the class monitor’s table. Unknown to her, there was a pair of large round eyes watching her from the back of the classroom. Anna had forgotten her wallet and had returned to the classroom to take it.

When recess ended, the smell of medicated oil had already filled the whole classroom. Once the class monitor entered the class, he started to sneeze vigorously. What a sight! He was allergic to medicated oil and was turning red in the face. Half the class laughed till their sides ached while the other half looked suspiciously around the room. While they had to admit that the class monitor was a rather biased person, he was still their class monitor regardless, and they owed him that amount of respect.

Anna stood in the corner. Should she tell the teacher what she had seen earlier? Would the class believe her or would they take Cheryl’s side?
