

The background of the cover is a deep red with abstract, flowing patterns. In the lower-left foreground, there is a detailed illustration of a transesophageal echocardiography (TEE) probe. The probe has a long, teal-colored shaft and a white, cylindrical sheath. It is shown in a curved position, as if being inserted into a patient's mouth. Behind the probe, a stylized heart is visible, rendered in shades of blue and yellow, with white lines indicating its internal structure. The overall design is modern and medical.
