1 why use a conical flask instead of a beaker?	I put it has a smaller opening than a beaker so less gas lost?? You want to lose gas? - I am pretty sure this is the right answer, well it decreases the rate of gas no loss so easier to measure the rate. It doesn't reduce the rate of gas loss as this only depends on the concentration of reactants No splashing This was jokes Reactants don't stick to the side what??????? they would stick a little regardless	what was the cotton wool in that diagram for lolz it threw me off I put that the liquid would be shallower with larger surface area so gas produced could escape quicker I put larger surface area for to heat mixture more evenly? I said this too You dont want to have a large opening bc the acid may be lost due to the bubbles forming. Anything about swirling? I wrote swirling	1
rate at 2 minutes.	0.5 g min⁻¹? This is correct. A range of values typically accepted. I got 0.4 so yeah they'll accept a range AS LONG as they can see how you worked it out. G min⁻¹ ? Yeah but if u changed to seconds it wouldn't really matter as long as u put g per second Mol Dm⁻³s⁻¹ +	I got 0.02, you had to convert to mols - you didn't have to, any appropriate units would be fine I got like 0.0175 gs⁻¹ - Same here - yeah just rounded Gmin⁻¹ no? Is it not gmin⁻¹ the graph was in minutes I converted the minutes to seconds and put my units with seconds as well, any idea if thats okay? Yes	3

General Psychotherapy Lotte Hartmann-Kottek, 2022-03-26 This book highlights common similarities between the various schools of psychotherapy. It provides psychotherapists with the underlying neurophysiological, developmental, psychological, and relationship-oriented matrix, basic needs, and their regulation deficits, trauma, and conflict processing patterns, including accompanying exercises, as well as opportunities for healing, correction, and stabilisation, and the ways in which to apply these methods in a therapeutically mindful way for the benefit of the patient. The new university-based psychotherapy training covers the four fundamental schools of psychotherapy, i.e. the previous standard approaches plus the systemic and humanistic ones. Focusing on the common ground builds bridges of understanding and encourages collaboration. This expanded new range of methods to access patients constitutes a substantial development in the field of psychotherapy and will also influence the psychotherapy practice of experienced colleagues. Written for medical and psychological psychotherapists, psychosomatic doctors, psychiatrists, and other specialists with additional psychotherapeutic qualifications, and for students of psychotherapy.

Traditional Communities in Indonesia Lilis Mulyani, 2022-08-26 This book explores the ambiguous legal status of traditional adat communities in Indonesia and their informal traditional rights to communal ulayat land. It discusses the lack of recognition of adat communities and their legal rights in the Indonesian constitution, surveys legal consideration of informal legal rights both in Indonesia and elsewhere, and examines how thinking about these issues has evolved over time in Indonesia. It provides an in-depth study of the ways that government policies on adat communities are developed, changed, and implemented, and how different actors give meaning to these policies, particularly government bodies with authority to manage land and forests, which exercise discretion as to the operational implementation of ideas about adat groups as legal persons and ulayat land rights as land title, thus enabling their exploitation by government and business. The book highlights how these issues are becoming more pressing as problems relating to legal personhood and rights to traditional customary land are increasingly giving rise to violent conflict, dispossession, and marginalisation. It also demonstrates how adat communities can take action and are doing so to protect their legal positions.

Maternal Health Care : Policies, Technical Standards and Services Accessibility in Eight Countries in the Western Pacific Region WHO Regional Office for the Western Pacific, 2019-02-11 Target 5A of the United Nations Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) was to reduce maternal deaths by 75% between 1990 and 2015. The Maternal Mortality Estimation Inter-Agency Group, comprising the World Health Organization (WHO), the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF), the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA), the World Bank Group, and the United Nations Population Division, assessed the 95 countries with an MMR higher than 100 in 1990. The report notes that Cambodia, the Lao People's Democratic Republic, and Mongolia have achieved this target in the Western Pacific Region. However, maternal mortality remains higher than the Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) target in five countries in the Region. WHO has developed evidence-based maternal health recommendations for Latham, 2014-08-01 Australians once trusted the democratic process While we got on with our lives we assumed our politicians had our best interests at heart Not anymore That trust has collapsed Mark Latham joined the Labor Party in the late 1970s hoping to improve people's lives through parliamentary service Twenty five years later the Opposition Leader ended up as disillusioned as the rest of us The scorching honesty of The Latham Diaries ensured he'd burned his political bridges but ostracism from the Canberra Club has its advantages In The Political Bubble Mark Latham is free to explore how parliamentary democracy has lost touch with the people it's supposed to represent As with most institutions at risk politics has become more tribal with left and right wing fanatics dominating formerly robust mainstream parties After the disappointment of the Rudd Gillard years Tony Abbott promised to restore trust in Australian politics but as with most of his promises it was dispensable The Political Bubble looks at the new government's policies how Abbott is adding to distrust not solving the problem What can be done about this democratic deficit Can our parliamentary system realign itself with community expectations or has politics become one long race to the bottom A brilliant analysis of Australia in the era of Tony Abbott and fanatical right wing politics ROBERT MANNE Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015,
