Dan Flavin Michael Govan, Dan Flavin, Tiffany Bell, Brydon Smith, National Gallery of Art (U.S.), 2004 Dan Flavin 1933-1996 is considered one of the most important and innovative artists of the late twentieth century. The simplicity and systematic character of his extraordinary work, along with his relentless exploration and ingenious discovery of an art of light, established him as a progenitor and chief exponent of Minimalism. Uniquely situated outside the mediums of painting and sculpture, the majority of Flavin's work after 1963 consists of art made from light. This landmark book, the first retrospective publication of Flavin's art since 1969, includes around 45 of the artist's most important light works, beginning with a pivotal series of constructed boxes with attached incandescent or fluorescent lights called icons, made from 1961 to 1963. Works spanning Flavin's career are discussed in depth, including examples that integrate light with the surrounding space and show the particular characteristics of blended fluorescent light, large-scale installations, and constructed corridors. The book also includes reproductions of Flavin's drawings, which show his thought processes and working methods. New scholarship and interpretation of Flavin's work appears in the form of three critical essays by experts, an extensive chronology, comprehensive bibliography, and exhibition history. In addition, Flavin's seminal text in Daylight or Cool White, an autobiographical sketch originally published in Artforum in 1965, is included. Exquisitely designed and produced with many new, stunning color reproductions, Dan Flavin: A Retrospective captures the brilliance of this artist's contribution to, and challenges of, the art world and will be the authoritative volume on Flavin for years to come. publisher description Dan Flavin Museum of Contemporary Art (Chicago, Ill.), 2005 Dan Flavin Jeffrey Weiss, 2006-01-01 In making light his primary medium, Dan Flavin 1933-1996 established himself as one of the most innovative and significant artists of the minimalist movement. A new generation encountered Flavin's work through the critically acclaimed exhibition Dan Flavin: A Retrospective, which opened in October 2004 at the National Gallery of Art, Washington. Dan Flavin: New Light includes essays that respond to this exhibition and to the renewed interest in Flavin's work and its place in 20th-century art. In this volume, six leading scholars of contemporary art consider the ambiguities and multiple resonances of Flavin's light works. Each addresses the ontological complexity of the work, object-based yet situational and painterly in its deployment of colored light within the insistently sculptural world of minimalism. The book's contributors interpret this tension by exploring Flavin's early assemblages, the relationship of drawing to his installation practice, the specificity of his materials and their operation in actual space, and the openly ambivalent place of Flavin's work within the history of late modernism.
