Regionalism and Modernity Leen Meganck, Linda Van Santvoort, Jan De Maeyer, Jan de Meyer, 2013 The complex and shifting relation between regionalism and modernity With its search for purity honesty modesty and fitness of purpose the late 19th and early 20th century concept of architectural regionalism is seminal to the modern movement In later historiography however regionalism in Europe was neglected and even labeled backward The origins of this drastic change of perception can be traced to the 1930s when regionalism as a positive form gradually turned into a closed form of regionalism a folding back on one's own region as a defence mechanism in an economically and politically turbulent decade A History of the Netherlands Friso Wielenga, 2019-10-03 This is the most comprehensive history of the Netherlands available in the English language It surveys Dutch history from the 16th century when the nation took shape as a geographical administrative and political entity right through to the Netherlands of today Examining domestic politics and wider international contexts as well as economic and cultural history Friso Wielenga provides a varied and in depth investigation that will lead to a rich understanding of the country's past The book also challenges misplaced preconceptions regarding political consensus and religious toleration in the country and offers a balanced assessment of developments across the early modern modern and contemporary eras This new edition includes One brand new chapter on the Netherlands since 1945 Much more material on colonial history slavery the decolonisation of Indonesia and the contemporary legacy of colonialism Historiographical updates throughout A wealth of new images maps tables and figures This book is essential reading for anyone seeking a knowledge of Dutch history since 1500 Plain Lives in a Golden Age Arie Theodorus van Deursen, 1991-08-22 This is an account of the ordinary working people of Holland in the seventeenth century the so called golden age De vrucht van Bijbelsche opvoeding Jacques Dane, 1996
