26. Nonfiction Questions ???

When you go to the store, you buy different things. Some things are goods, and other things are services. Goods are things you can hold in your hand. They are things that you take with you when you leave. Food, clothes, and toys are all goods. Services are things you buy when you go to the store. When you buy a service, there are no goods.

7. Nonfiction Questions ???

There are different types of landforms. Landforms are the way our Earth is shaped. A mountain is tall and is higher than all the land that is around it. A mountain is steep and has a peak at the top. If many mountains are together, then it is called a mountain range. A hill is smaller than a mountain. A valley is the land between mountains or hills. A valley is low. A plain is a flat area of land. There are no hills or mountains on a plain.

- What is the area between two mountains called?
