Dagboek van een oude dwaas Tanizaki (Junichirō), Maurice Sigismund Coutinho, 1968 Dagboek van een oude dwaas Jun'ichirō Tanizaki, 1987 The Cinema of the Low Countries Ernest Mathijs, 2004

Films from the Netherlands Belgium and Luxembourg have long been regarded as isolated texts The Cinema of the Low Countries points to the interconnectedness between these national cinemas from the point of view of genre language and format and their local and international importance by explicitly focusing on 24 key feature films and documentaries from the region Building on each film's relationship with its particular cultural context this volume presents twenty four specially commissioned essays that explore the particular significance and influence of a wide range of exemplary films Covering the work of internationally acclaimed directors such as Joris Ivens Henri Stock Paul Verhoeven and the Dardenne Brothers and featuring the films Turkish Delight The Vanishing Daughters of Darkness Rosetta Soldiers of Orange and Man Bites Dog this collection offers an original approach to the appreciation of a diverse and increasingly important regional cinema Dutch Post-war Fiction Film through a Lens of Psychoanalysis Peter Verstraten, 2025-10-01 Dutch Post war Fiction Film through a Lens of Psychoanalysis is a sequel to Humour and Irony in Dutch Post war Fiction Film AUP 2016 but the two studies can be read separately Because of the sheer variety of Fons Rademakers oeuvre which spans art cinema and cult genre film and historical epics each chapter will start with one of his titles to introduce a key concept from psychoanalysis It is an oft voiced claim that Dutch cinema strongly adheres to realism but this idea is put into perspective by using psychoanalytic theories on desire and fantasy In the vein of cinephilia this study brings together canonical titles Als twee druppels water Soldaat van Oranje and little gems Monsieur Hawarden Kracht It juxtaposes among others Gluckauf and De vliegende Hollander on father figures Flanagan and Spoorloos on rabbles and heroes De aanslag and Leedvermaak on historical traumas and Antonia and Bluebird on aphanisis Reel Women Jane Sloan, 2007-03-26 In the last several decades the number of films featuring female protagonists has increased significantly Many of these films reflect the vast cultural and sociological changes that have taken place since the early 1960s highlighting not only a wide spectrum of female characters depicted onscreen but the creative work of women behind the camera as well In Reel Women An International Directory of Contemporary Feature Films about Women media librarian Jane Sloan has assembled an impressive list of more than 2400 films from nearly 100 countries that feature female protagonists Each entry includes a brief description of the film and cites key artistic personnel particularly female directors producers and screenwriters involved in its production Reel Women also contains a critical survey in which Sloan charts the changes women have undergone both on screen and off as moviemaking and audience sensibilities have evolved in the last forty plus years Listing many more films on the subject of women than can be found in any other source this reference brings together important titles from area studies and genre markets along with titles associated with women's cinema and feminist film In addition to title and actor indexes the book contains a subject index that provides detailed access to place names historical characters time periods and storylines as well as the backgrounds _religious racial and ethnic_ of the main characters This directory is an ideal reference tool for researchers studying the evolution of female characters in films around the world from Afghanistan to Zimbabwe It is also a resource for casual viewers who are looking for films that reflect the diversity of women s roles that can be found in independent and national cinemas as well as commercial blockbusters The Encyclopedia of Film James Monaco,1991 An alphabetical reference on the major film figures stars producers directors writers et al past and present Each entry provides a substantial career biography and a complete listing of all films the individual has been involved with Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
