Dance Of The Tiger And Cave Paintings:

Dance of the Tiger Björn Kurtén, 1995-10-10 Björn Kurtén's compelling novel gives the reader a detailed picture of life 35 000 years ago in Western Europe. One of the world's leading scholars of Ice Age fauna, Kurtén fuses extraordinary knowledge and imagination in this vivid evocation of our deepest past. This novel illuminates the lives of the humans who left us magnificent paintings in the caves of France and Spain. Civilizations Beyond Earth Douglas A. Vakoch, Albert A. Harrison, 2011-09-01 Astronomers around the world are pointing their telescopes toward the heavens searching for signs of intelligent life. If they make contact with an advanced alien civilization, how will humankind respond? In thinking about first contact, the contributors to this volume present new empirical and theoretical research on the societal dimensions of the Search for Extraterrestrial Intelligence (SETI). Archaeologists and astronomers explore the likelihood that extraterrestrial intelligence exists using scientific insights to estimate such elusive factors as the longevity of technological societies. Sociologists present the latest findings of novel surveys tapping into the public's attitudes about life beyond Earth to show how religion and education influence beliefs about extraterrestrials. Scholars from such diverse disciplines as mathematics, chemistry, journalism, and religious studies offer innovative solutions for bridging the cultural gap between human and extraterrestrial civilizations while recognizing the tremendous challenges of communicating at interstellar distances. At a time when new planets are being discovered around other stars at an unprecedented rate, this collection provides a much needed guide to the human impact of discovering we are not alone in the universe. Lord of the Dance Richard J. Kohn, 2001-06-14 A first-hand description of the Mani Rimdu festival of Tibet and Nepal, an event which encapsulates the Himalayan Buddhist experience. Return of the Osprey David Gessner, 2025-10-15 A memoir tribute to a once endangered species and natural history. Return of the Osprey recounts the many discoveries David Gessner made when he immersed himself for an entire nesting season in the lives of the ospreys that had returned to his seagirt corner of Cape Cod. The osprey, hailed by Roger Tory Peterson as the symbol of the New England coast, all but vanished during the 1950s and 60s because of the ravages of DDT. In the next few decades, however, the birds returned slowly at first and then in a rush. Writing with passion, humor, and a reverence for the natural world, Gessner interweaves the stories of the nesting osprey pairs he observed with his own readjustment to life on the windblown, beautiful and increasingly developed landscape he had known as a child. With a new preface from Gessner and foreword by Helen Macdonald, Return of the Osprey celebrates one of nature's most remarkable creatures as well as our own limitless capacity for wonder. Women In Human Evolution Lori Hager, 2005-08-18 This volume, the first of its kind, examines the role of women paleontologists and archaeologists in a field traditionally dominated by men. Women researchers in this field have questioned many of the assumptions and developmental scenarios advanced by male scientists. As a result of such efforts, women have forged a more central role in models of human development and have radically altered the way in which human evolution is perceived. This history of the feminist critique of science is of profound significance and will be of interest to all those who work in the fields of anthropology archaeology paleontology and human biology The Unstoppable Human Species John J. Shea, 2023-03-23 This book asks new and interesting questions about how our prehistoric ancestors survived and how they settled the world Chinese Theatre: An Illustrated History Through Nuoxi and Mulianxi Xiaohuan Zhao, 2021-12-30 Chinese Theatre An Illustrated History Through Nuoxi and Mulianxi is the first book in any language entirely devoted to a historical inquiry into Chinese theatre through Nuoxi and Mulianxi the two most representative and predominant forms of Chinese temple theatre With a view to evaluating the role of temple theatre in the development of xiqu or traditional Chinese theatre and drama from myth to ritual to ritual drama to drama Volume One provides a panoramic perspective that allows every aspect of Nuoxi to be considered not in the margins of xiqu but in and of itself Thus this volume traces xiqu history from its shamanic roots in exorcism rituals of Nuo to various forms of ritual and theatrical performance presented at temple fairs during community and calendrical festivals or for ceremonial functions over the course of imperial history and into the twenty first century followed by an exploration of the scriptural origins and oral traditions of Mulianxi with pivotal forms and functions of Nuoxi and Mulian storytelling examined explicated and illustrated in association with the development of corresponding genres of Chinese performance literature and performing arts This is an interdisciplinary book project that is aimed to help researchers and students of theatre history understand the ritual origins of Chinese theatre and the dynamic relationships among myth ritual religion and theatre

Fire in the Stone Nicholas Ruddick, 2012-01-01 The genre of prehistoric fiction contains a surprisingly large and diverse group of fictional works by American British and French writers from the late nineteenth century to the present that describe prehistoric humans Nicholas Ruddick explains why prehistoric fiction could not come into being until after the acceptance of Charles Darwin's theories and argues that many early prehistoric fiction works are still worth reading even though the science upon which they are based is now outdated Exploring the history and evolution of the genre Ruddick shows how prehistoric fiction can offer fascinating insights into the possible origins of human nature sexuality racial distinctions language religion and art The book includes discussions of well known prehistoric fiction by H G Wells Jules Verne J H Rosny A n Jack London William Golding Arthur C Clarke and Jean M Auel and reminds us of some unjustly forgotten landmarks of prehistoric fiction It also briefly covers such topics as the recent boom in prehistoric romance notable prehistoric fiction for children and young adults and the most entertaining movies featuring prehistoric humans The book includes illustrations that trace the changing popular images of cave men and women over the past 150 years Indian Anthropology Gaya
