which contains four chapters In Part I titled Rethinking Resistance contributors assert that resistance continues to hold utility as both an analytic concept and mode of action in the world and therefore demands renewed engagement Part II contains essays that offer novel frames for addressing progressive social change that might serve to replace resistance entirely and thus is entitled Thinking Beyond

Beyond Emasculation Adnan Hossain,2022-02-03 This book is based on long term ethnographic research with hijras the emblematic figure of South Asian sexual and gender difference in Dhaka Bangladesh It proposes the hijra as a counter cultural formation that embodies not only a direct contrast to hegemonic patterns of masculinity but also as an alternative subculture offering the possibility of varied forms of erotic pleasures and practices otherwise forbidden in mainstream society While most studies view hijras as an asexual emasculated third sex gender this book calls into question the phallogocentric logic that obscures alternative sites and sources of bodily power and pleasure emphasizing how hijras craft their own subject position Ethnographically rich and theoretically engaged this book will cause a new global re examination of both hijras in particular and the wider range of male femininities in general

Futures After Progress Chloe Ahmann,2024-05-14 How do people live in a time after promises of progress have revealed themselves to be empty In Futures after Progress anthropologist Chloe Ahmann examines the grave lethal threat posed by long term air pollution in Baltimore MD Focusing on the industrialized community of Curtis Bay ranked first in the country for air pollutants released from stationary sources she examines competing visions of the future and the severe human toll they can take Examining the rifts between white and Black communities advocates of big industry and environmental activists and older and younger generations Ahmann shows how this community has become a battleground in which lives lost to pollution are seen by some as a regrettable side effect on the road to economic renewal A rigorous moving study of environmental risk and disaster this book offers deep insights for our current condition and the possibility of a postindustrial world

Social Science Knowledge and Economic Development Vernon W. Ruttan,2003 The central premise of this book is that the demand for social science knowledge is derived from the demand for institutional change pref

Thirteen Theories of Human Nature Leslie Forster Stevenson,Leslie Stevenson,David L. Haberman,Peter Matthews Wright,2017 Over six previous editions Twelve Theories of Human Nature has been a remarkably popular introduction to some of the most influential developments in Western and Eastern thought Now titled Thirteen Theories of Human Nature this text continues to be an ideal introduction to human nature and intellectual history This unique volume will engage and motivate students to consider how we can understand and improve both ourselves and human society

Franz Boas Noga Arikha,2025-05-13 A thought provoking account of the life and work of Franz Boas and his influential role in shaping modern anthropology Franz Boas 1858 1942 is widely acknowledged for his pioneering work in the field of cultural anthropology His rigorous studies of variations across societies were aimed at demonstrating that cultures and peoples were not shaped by biological predispositions This book traces Boas s life and intellectual passions from his roots in Germany and his move to the United States in 1884 partly in response to growing antisemitism in Germany to his work with First Nations communities and his influential role as a teacher mentor and engaged activist who inspired an entire generation Drawing from Boas s numerous but rarely read writings Noga Arikha brings to life the man and the ideas he developed about the complex interplay of mind and culture biology and history language and myth She provides a comprehensive picture of the cultural contexts in which he worked of his personal and professional relationships and of his revolutionary approach to fieldwork He was celebrated in his lifetime for the cultural relativism he developed and the arguments he marshaled against entrenched racialism But his was a constant battle and Arikha shows how urgently relevant his voice and legacy have become again today

Asian Migration and Education Cultures in the Anglosphere Megan Watkins, Christina Ho, Rose Butler, 2019-03-27 Asian migration and mobilities are transforming education cultures in the Anglosphere prompting mounting debates about tiger mothers and dragon children and competition and segregation in Anglosphere schools This book challenges the cultural essentialism which prevails in much academic and popular discussion of Asian success and in relation to Asian education mobilities As anxiety and aspiration within these spaces are increasingly ethnicised the children of Asian migrants are both admired and resented for their educational success This book explores popular perceptions of Asian migrant families through in depth empirically informed accounts on the broader economic social historical and geo political contexts within which education cultures are produced This includes contributions from academics on global markets and national policies around migration and education classed trajectories and articulations local formations of ethnic capital and transnational assemblages that produce education and mobility as means for social advancement At a time when our schooling systems and communities are undergoing rapid transformations as a result of increasing global mobility this book is a unique and important contribution to an issue of pressing significance This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies
