The Disobedient Museum Kylie Message, 2017-09-22 The Disobedient Museum Writing at the Edge aims to motivate disciplinary thinking to reimagine writing about museums as an activity where resistant forms of thinking seeing feeling and acting can be produced and to theorize this process as a form of protest against disciplinary stagnation Drawing on a range of cultural theoretical and political approaches Kylie Message examines potential links between methods of critique today and moments of historical and disciplinary crisis and asks what contribution museums might make to these either as direct actors or through activities that sit more comfortably within their institutional remit Identifying the process of writing about museums as a form of activism that brings together and elaborates on cultural and political agendas for change the book explores how a process of engaged critique might benefit museum studies what this critique might look like and how museum studies might make a contribution to discourses of social and political change The Disobedient Museum is the first volume in Routledge's innovative Museums in Focus series and will be of great interest to scholars and students in the fields of Museum Heritage Public History and Cultural Studies It should also be essential reading for museum practitioners particularly those engaged with questions about the role of museums in regard to social activism and contentious contemporary challenges The Routledge Handbook of Architecture, Urban Space and Politics, Volume I Nikolina

Bobic, Farzaneh Haghighi, 2022-10-28 For architecture and urban space to have relevance in the 21st Century we cannot merely reignite the approaches of thought and design that were operative in the last century This is despite or because of the nexus between politics and space often being theorized as a representation or by product of politics As a symbol or an effect the spatial dimension is depoliticized Consequently architecture and the urban are halted from fostering any systematic change as they are secondary to the event and therefore incapable of performing any political role This handbook explores how architecture and urban space can unsettle the unquestioned construct of the spatial politics of governing Considering both ongoing and unprecedented global problems from violence and urban warfare the refugee crisis borderization detention camps terrorist attacks to capitalist urbanization inequity social unrest and climate change this handbook provides a comprehensive and multidisciplinary research focused on the complex nexus of politics architecture and urban space Volume I starts by pointing out the need to explore the politics of spatialization to make sense of the operational nature of spatial oppression in contemporary times The operative and active political reading of space is disseminated through five thematic Violence and War Machines Security and Borders Race Identity and Ideology Spectacle and the Screen and Mapping Landscapes and Big Data This first volume of the handbook frames cutting edge contemporary debates and presents studies of actual theories and projects that address spatial politics This Handbook will be of interest to anyone seeking to meaningfully disrupt the reduction of space to an oppressive or neutral backdrop of political realities Chapters 1 and 23 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license The Bloomsbury Handbook to Edwidge Danticat Jana Evans Braziel, Nadège T. Clitandre, 2021-01-28

Gratch, Ariel Gratch, 2021-11-11 Digital Performance in Everyday Life combines theories of performance communication and media to explore the many ways we perform in our everyday lives through digital media and in virtual spaces Digital communication technologies and the social norms and discourses that developed alongside these technologies have altered the ways we perform as and for ourselves and each other in virtual spaces Through a diverse range of topics and examples including discussions of self identity surveillance mourning internet memes storytelling ritual political action and activism this book addresses how the physical and virtual have become inseparable in everyday life and how the digital is always rooted in embodied action Focusing on performance and human agency the authors offer fresh perspectives on communication and digital culture The unique interdisciplinary approach of this book will be useful to scholars artists and activists in communication digital media performance studies theatre sociology political science information technology and cybersecurity along with anyone interested in how communication shapes and is shaped by digital technologies Sisters in Spirit Andreana C. Prichard,2017-05-01 In this pioneering study historian Andreana Prichard presents an intimate history of a single mission organization the Universities Mission to Central Africa UMCA told through the rich personal stories of a group of female African lay evangelists Founded by British Anglican missionaries in the 1860s the UMCA worked among refugees from the Indian Ocean slave trade on Zanzibar and among disparate communities on the adjacent Tanzanian mainland Prichard illustrates how the mission s unique theology and the demographics of its adherents produced cohorts of African Christian women who in the face of linguistic and cultural dissimilarity used the daily performance of a certain set of civilized Christian values and affective relationships to evangelize to new inquirers The UMCA s sisters in spirit ultimately forged a united spiritual community that spanned discontinuous mission stations across Tanzania and Zanzibar incorporated diverse ethnolinguistic communities and transcended generations Focusing on the emotional and personal dimensions of their lives and on the relationships of affective spirituality that grew up among them Prichard tells stories that are vital to our understanding of Tanzanian history the history of religion and Christian missions in Africa the development of cultural nationalisms and the intellectual histories of African women Routledge Handbook of Queer African Studies S.N. Nyeck,2019-12-06 This handbook offers diverse perspectives on queer Africa incorporating scholarly contributions on themes that reflect and inflect the trajectories of queer contributions to African studies within and outside academia The Routledge Handbook of Queer African Studies incorporates a range of unique perspectives reflecting ongoing struggles between regimes of inclusion and those of transformation premised upon different relational and reflexive engagements between queer embodiment and Africa s subjectivities All sections of this handbook blend contributions from public intellectuals and practitioners with academic reflections on topics not limited to neoliberalism social care morality and ethics social education and technology through the lens of queer African studies The book renders visible the ongoing transformations and resistance within African societies as well as the inventiveness of queer presence in negotiating belonging This handbook will be of interest to students and scholars of gender and sexuality in Africa queer studies and African culture and society

Waste and Urban Regeneration Jeong Hye Kim,2020-11-26 Waste and Urban Regeneration examines the Nanjido region of Seoul and its transformation from Nanjido Landfill to the World Cup Park and its relation to the urban ecology within the context of the city s urban development during the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries The study analyses the urban ecological meanings of the site s two distinct forms by consolidating them with the Lefebvrian urban theory and relational ecological theories This book looks at environmental transformations and their link to South Korea s political and economic changes how Seoul City controlled waste populations the borderline characterisations of the inhabited landfill and its community the regeneration of the landfill into the post landfill park and site specific artworks which explored the conflict between the invisible presence of the landfill s garbage and its history As one of the first accounts of a landfill and landfill turned park of South Korea this study is a must read for academics and researchers interested in waste management ecology landscape theory and history

Reconstructing Urban Economics Franklin

Obeng-Odoom,2016-08-15 Neoclassical economics the intellectual bedrock of modern capitalism faces growing criticisms as many of its key assumptions and policy prescriptions are systematically challenged Yet there remains one field of economics where these limitations continue virtually unchallenged the study of cities and regions in built environment economics In this book Franklin Obeng Odoom draws on institutional Georgist and Marxist economics to clearly but comprehensively show what the key issues are today in thinking about urban economics In doing so he demonstrates the widespread tensions and contradictions in the status quo showing how to reconstruct urban economics in order to create a more just society and environment

Local Experiences of Mining in Peru Gerardo Castillo Guzmán,2020-02-05 This book uses a multimethod approach to examine local experience of contemporary mining development in the Peruvian Andes creating an understanding of the transformations that rural societies experience in this context Mining is a major component of economic growth in many resource endowed countries whilst also causing mixed social cultural and environmental effects Most current literature on contemporary mining in Peru is largely focussed on conflict however in this text the author takes a differing approach by examining the experiences of families in the vicinity of Rio Tinto s La Granja exploration copper project Northern Peru an area with great significance due to the mining investment and development which has taken place over the past 25 years The book first provides a critical discussion about production of space theories and debates on spatial mobility highlighting their relevance to understanding large scale mining developments especially in the Peruvian Andes The following chapters analyze spatial transformations mining development has prompted focusing on four axes access to space production mobility and representations of space A comprehensive narrative is constructed drawing on diverse voices and perspectives including those of family heads and their partners local leaders company employees and social scientists The book concludes by discussing how the findings challenge some of the current accounts of the social effects of mining developement on rural communities and pose significant implications for sustainable development programs and place based practices By taking an interdisciplinary approach this book will appeal to a wide audience including geographers social anthropologists and social scientists interested in the social effects of mining as well as researchers interested in current Latin American Studies and Rural Development
