

Culturally-Responsive Lesson Plan Checklist

To complete a lesson plan, use the following checklist to ensure your lesson plan has all the basic components. Usually, a lesson allows students to master general goals or outcomes determined at the institutional, state or federal level. As an instructor, you create a lesson plan that addresses specific SMART learning goals or smaller steps students take to reach the general outcome. In addition to goals, lesson plans include a list of materials, essential content, and assessments that will be used to measure learning. Finally, the lesson organized in a specific order or sequence that should address student learning level.

Directions: To complete this checklist, add your comments to the Response Column. You should summarize what you already know, note research areas you need to complete, along with any action steps needed to take to complete the lesson plan. You can also request instructor feedback or work with peers.

Student Make-Up of Class

Begin with your students. What do you know about the class or age group? This information will allow you to plan a lesson that engages your students and also considers their learning level and needs. You may need to conduct research to obtain this information.

Student Qualities	Questions to Consider/Research to Complete?	Response
Student Demographics Found in Classroom	What information do you have about the make-up of students in the classroom? What does demographic data reveal? What do you know about this specific age group?	Already Know What I already know is that my classroom is not all one student group, nationality, or race. Need to Know What I need to know is how each student would like themselves to be presented to make them feel comfortable in my class. Steps to Take Steps that I can take to make my class feel comforting is to know all of the student's names and what they prefer to be called.
Student Grade Level Information	What do you know about the learning needs of students in this grade level?	Already Know Some learning needs some students could have is that they are more auditory than visual or vice versa. Need to Know What I need to know is what way of learning can be reached and connected to all pf my students without any of them feeling left out. Steps to Take
