Culture, Leadership, and Organizations Robert J. House, Paul J. Hanges, Mansour Javidan, Peter W. Dorfman, Vipin Gupta, 2004-04-29 Culture Leadership and Organizations reports the results of a ten year research program the Global Leadership and Organizational Behavior Effectiveness GLOBE research program GLOBE is a long term program designed to conceptualize operationalize test and validate a cross level integrated theory of the relationship between culture and societal organizational and leadership effectiveness A team of 160 scholars worked together since 1994 to study societal culture organizational culture and attributes of effective leadership in 62 cultures Culture Leadership and Organizations The GLOBE Study of 62 Societies reports the findings of the first two phases of GLOBE The book is primarily based on the results of the survey of over 17 000 middle managers in three industries banking food processing and telecommunications as well as archival measures of country economic prosperity and the physical and psychological well being of the cultures studied GLOBE has several distinguishing features First it is truly a cross cultural research program The constructs were defined conceptualized and operationalized by the multicultural team of researchers Second the industries were selected through a polling of the country investigators and the instruments were designed with the full participation of the researchers representing the different cultures Finally the data in each country were collected by investigators who were either natives of the cultures studied or had extensive knowledge and experience in that culture A unique feature of this book is that while it is an edited book and many experts have written the different chapters unlike other edited books it is a fully integrated seamless and cohesive book covering the many aspects of the theory underpinning the GLOBE Beyond Hofstede Cheryl Nakata, 2009-07-16 Hofstede introduced a culture paradigm that has been widely influential in international business However its relevance in light of culture s increasing complexity due to globalization has been questioned Alternative culture frameworks and perspectives are offered by leading scholars in global marketing and management Multicultural Marketing Is Your Story Eliane Karsaklian, 2023-06-21 This book is an invitation to reflection to critical thinking to objectivity and to the liberty of accepting what is different Ever since Homo Sapiens populated our world our lives have been stories we tell to all those we are surrounded by every day as well as to unknown people through social media when we post the pictures of our vacations pets children and graduation or changes in our jobs We buy brands that have a story we admire or those that are recommended by influencers because we are fascinated by their stories This book is about you It is the story of your past your present and your future as you live in multicultural communities Page after page you see the story of humankind and of multiculturalism unfold and be explained through the lenses of science and storytelling Multicultural Marketing is Your Story is thoroughly illustrated with real life examples The ideas theories and statements presented in this book will perhaps challenge some of your deepest beliefs or they might as well comfort you in your own opinions Ultimately this book is an invitation to reflection to critical thinking to objectivity and to the liberty of accepting what is different

Armies of Sand Kenneth Michael Pollack, 2019 Since the Second World War Arab armed forces have consistently punched below their weight They have lost many wars that by all rights they should have won and in their best performances only ever achieved quite modest accomplishments Over time soldiers scholars and military experts have offered various explanations for this pattern Reliance on Soviet military methods the poor civil military relations of the Arab world the underdevelopment of the Arab states and patterns of behavior derived from the wider Arab culture have all been suggested as the ultimate source of Arab military difficulties Armies of Sand Kenneth M Pollack's powerful and riveting history of Arab armies from the end of World War Two to the present assesses these differing explanations and isolates the most important causes Over the course of the book he examines the combat performance of fifteen Arab armies and air forces in virtually every Middle Eastern war from the Jordanians and Syrians in 1948 to Hizballah in 2006 and the Iraqis and ISIS in 2014 2017 He then compares these experiences to the performance of the Argentine Chadian Chinese Cuban North Korean and South Vietnamese armed forces in their own combat operations during the twentieth century The book ultimately concludes that reliance on Soviet doctrine was more of a help than a hindrance to the Arabs In contrast politicization and underdevelopment were both important factors limiting Arab military effectiveness but patterns of behavior derived from the dominant Arab culture was the most important factor of all Pollack closes with a discussion of the rapid changes occurring across the Arab world political economic and cultural as well as the rapid evolution in war making as a result of the information revolution He suggests that because both Arab society and warfare are changing the problems that have bedeviled Arab armed forces in the past could dissipate or even vanish in the future with potentially dramatic consequences for the Middle East military balance Sweeping in its historical coverage and highly accessible this will be the go to reference for anyone interested in the history of warfare in the Middle East since 1945 Psycho-Social Analysis of the Indian Mindset Jai B.P.

Sinha, 2014-10-17 This volume situates Indians in the contemporary world and profiles the major facets of their thought and behaviour then goes back to trace their roots to ancient thought to see how the past predisposes and the present guides Indians in their everyday life The volume begins with a conceptual framework showing how the Indian worldview has encompassed and enveloped a variety of ideas and influences from divergent sources As a result Indians are both collectivists and individualists hierarchically oriented while respecting merit and quality religious as well as secular and sexually indulgent spiritual as well as materialists excessively dependent but remarkably entrepreneurial non violent in principle but violent in practice and comfortable in shifting between analytical synthetic as well as intuitive approaches to reality Such a coexistence of opposites often causes inaction hesitation and perfunctory action but also equips Indians to be innovative by continuously aligning their thought and behaviour to the demands of a milieu The milieu has an inner layer consisting of desh place kaal time and paatra person which are embedded in the larger societal contexts of castes and classes poverty corruption fragmenting politics conflicts and violence and unfolding global opportunities and challenges Cultural heritage permeates in all these Indians function in this tiered multifactorial dynamic space This volume draws evidence from ancient texts and the latest national and international research many of which were conducted by the author and his associates It does not however hesitate to indulge in anecdotal evidence cases and speculative ideas in order to complete the picture The author takes an in depth view of the Indian mindset without getting the reader lost in either the intricacies of ancient philosophical abyss or the trivialities of present day non events The Sustainable Enterprise Fieldbook Jeana

Wirtenberg, William Russell, David Lipsky, 2017-09-29 Today managers and leaders of organizations in both the private sector and civil society are being challenged as never before to find ways to play a proactive role in addressing the concerns of sustainable development But they are often overwhelmed by a bombardment of conflicting messages from the media shareholders customers employees and NGOs The Sustainable Enterprise Fieldbook helps managers deal with this confusion It teaches them how to strike a better balance moving from an either or mind set to one that holistically embraces social environmental and economic issues simultaneously It addresses the what what is a sustainable strategy for a company or organization as well as the how how do we go about building a sustainable enterprise The Sustainable Enterprise Fieldbook has been put together by an outstanding network of experts from business Microsoft Sony Philips and AIG consultancies and academia Its aim is to teach and guide leaders managers practitioners students and professors in every sector of society and in every industry in creating a successful and sustainable enterprise By making the steps needed clear understandable and simple to follow the book naturally engages readers in their journey and encourages their participation in three key ways by increasing their understanding and awareness of what sustainability means at a conceptual and practical as well as a personal level by energizing and expanding people s commitment to building sustainable enterprises and by providing readers with extensive tools and techniques so they can individually and collectively take actions that will improve the social environmental and economic performance of their organizations in both the short and long term Each chapter of the book illustrates through models tools cases stories and examples from a wide range of companies how to integrate sustainability into the day to day realities of running a business Managers are coached facilitated and guided to enable them to create a better balance between the short and long term to help them to become change agents in their organizations and to provide answers to the question How do I make a difference Some of the areas covered are leadership strategy managing change employee engagement metrics and measurement networks and globalization Readers of The Sustainable Enterprise Fieldbook will find access to the innovative Living Fieldbook which is an online community support service providing ongoing updated assistance in building a sustainable enterprise The Sustainable Enterprise Fieldbook offers an ingredient that has been missing in the enormous outpouring of information on organizations and sustainability an holistic integration of solutions which will make the journey personal for each reader Global Coaching Philippe Rosinski, 2010-11-26 Lasting change requires a complete coaching approach The need for a master level of coaching has never been greater in the global

International HRM and Development in Emerging Market Multinationals Paresha Sinha, Parth Patel, Verma Prikshat, 2021-12-21 Emerging multinational enterprises or EMNEs have made a huge impact on the international business stage by internationalising at a rapid rate And they have performed remarkably well in both developing and developed countries Accordingly there is a growing strand of literature on how EMNEs manage their international human resource IHRM practices in different international contexts However the majority of the literature on IHRM practices of EMNEs is limited to explaining what international management practices EMNEs implement in their foreign subsidiaries and how they implement them Too often EMNEs struggle to transfer their weak management practices across national borders as they have limited experience resources and capabilities when compared to MNEs from developed countries Developing a better understanding on the manner in which EMNEs adopt their international human resource management and development practices abroad is therefore paramount to fully understand their globalisation related behaviours This dedicated book will aim to provide a holistic picture and contemporary insights on IHRM in emerging multinational enterprises It will be of interest to researchers academics and students in the fields of business and management especially those with a particular interest in human resource management firm internationalisation and emerging markets

Fishing for Human Perceptions in Coastal and Island Marine Resource Use Systems, 2nd Edition Annette Breckwoldt, Wen-Cheng Wang, Hans von Storch, Beate M. W. Ratter, 2019-06-07 Human perceptions decision making and pro environmental behaviour are closely connected This Research Topic focuses on bringing together perceptions and behaviour for sustainable coastal and island marine resource use systems Management and governance of large and small scale coastal marine resource use systems function in highly complex social and ecological environments which are culturally embedded economically interest led and politically biased Management processes therefore have to integrate multiple perspectives as well as perception driven standpoints on the individual as well as the decision makers levels Consequently the analysis of perceptions has developed not only as part of philosophy and psychology but also of environmental science anthropology and human geography It encompasses intuitions values attitudes thoughts mind sets place attachments and sense of place All of these influence human behavior and action and are collected or are available within the respective marine resource use system which may support the livelihood of a large part of the local population Management and governance are not only about mediating between resource use conflicts or establishing marine protected areas they deal with people and their ideas and perceptions Understanding the related decision making processes on multiple scales and levels hence means much more than economically assessing the available marine resources or existing threats to the associated system Over the past decade there has been a growing inter and transdisciplinary international community becoming interested in research which integrates perceptions of coastal and inland residents local and regional stakeholder groups as well as resource and environmental managers and decision makers By acknowledging the importance of the individual perspective and interest led personal views it became obvious how valuable and important these sources of information are for coastal research An increase of research effort spent on the link between perceptions and behaviour in marine resource use systems is thus both timely and needed By offering a diversity of inspiring and comprehensive contributions on the link between perceptions and behaviour this Research Topic aspires to critically enlighten the discourse and applicability of such research for finding sustainable locally identified anchored and integrated marine resource use pathways
