Culture Works Space Value And Mobility Across The Neoliberal Americas:

Culture Works Arlene Dávila, 2012-04-16 Based on research in Puerto Rico New York and Buenos Aires Culture Works Arlene Dávila, 2012-04-16 Culture Works addresses and critiques an important dimension of the work of culture an argument made by enthusiasts of creative economies that culture contributes to the GDP employment social cohesion and other forms of neoliberal development While culture does make important contributions to national and urban economies the incentives and benefits of participating in this economy are not distributed equally due to restructuring that neoliberal policies have wrought from the 1980s on as well as long standing social structures such as racism and classism that breed inequality The cultural economy promises to make life better particularly in cities but not everyone can take advantage of it for decent jobs Exposing and challenging the taken for granted assumptions around questions of space value and mobility that are sustained by neoliberal treatments of culture Culture Works explores some of the hierarchies of cultural workers that these engender as they play out in a variety of settings from shopping malls in Puerto Rico and art galleries in New York to tango tourism in Buenos Aires Noted scholar Arlene Dávila brilliantly reveals how similar dynamics of space value and mobility come to bear in each location inspiring particular cultural politics that have repercussions that are both geographically specific but also ultimately global in scope Nuyorican Feminist Performance Patricia Herrera, 2020-05-12 The Nuyorican Poets Caf has for the past forty years provided a space for multicultural artistic expression and a platform for the articulation of Puerto Rican and black cultural politics The Caf's performances poetry music hip hop comedy and drama have been studied in detail but until now little attention has been paid to the voices of its women artists Through archival research and interview Nuyorican Feminist Performance examines the contributions of 1970s and 80s performers and how they challenged the Caf's gender politics It also looks at recent artists who have built on that foundation with hip hop performances that speak to contemporary audiences The book spotlights the work of foundational artists such as Sandra Mar a Esteves Martita Morales Luz Rodr guez and Amina Mu oz before turning to contemporary artists La Bruja Mariposa Aya de Le n and Nilaja Sun who infuse their poetry and solo pieces with both Nuyorican and hip hop aesthetics

The Routledge Companion to Contemporary Anthropology Simon Coleman, Susan Hyatt, Ann Kingsolver, 2016-11-25 The Routledge Companion to Contemporary Anthropology is an invaluable guide and major reference source for students and scholars alike introducing its readers to key contemporary perspectives and approaches within the field Written by an experienced international team of contributors with an interdisciplinary range of essays this collection provides a powerful overview of the transformations currently affecting anthropology The volume both addresses the concerns of the discipline and comments on its construction through texts classroom interactions engagements with various publics and changing relations with other academic subjects Persuasively demonstrating that a number of key contemporary issues can be usefully analyzed through an anthropological lens the contributors cover important topics such as globalization law and politics collaborative archaeology economics religion citizenship and community health and the environment The Routledge Companion to Contemporary Anthropology is a fascinating examination of this lively and constantly evolving discipline

The Routledge Companion to Art and Politics Randy Martin, 2015-02-11 The Routledge Companion to Art and Politics offers a thorough examination of the complex relationship between art and politics and the many forms and approaches the engagement between them can take The contributors a diverse assembly of artists activists scholars from around the world discuss and demonstrate ways of making art and politics legible and salient in the world As such the 32 chapters in this volume reflect on performing and visual arts music film and new media as well as covering social practice community based work conceptual interventionist and movement affiliated forms The Companion is divided into four distinct parts Conceptual Cartographies Institutional Materialities Modalities of Practice Making Publics Randy Martin has assembled a collection that ensures that readers will come away with a wider view of what can count as art and politics where they might find it and how it moves in the world The diversity of perspectives is at once challenging and fortifying to those who might dismiss political art on the one hand as not making sufficient difference and on the other to those embracing it but seeking a means to elaborate the significance that it can make in the world The Routledge Companion to Art and Politics brings together a range of issues and approaches and encourages critical and creative thinking about how art is produced perceived and received

In and Out of View Catha Paquette, Karen Kleinfelder, Christopher Miles, 2021-09-09 In and Out of View models an expansion in how censorship is discursively framed Contributors from diverse backgrounds including artists art historians museum specialists and students address controversial instances of art production and reception from the mid 20th century to the present in the Americas Africa Asia Europe and the Middle East Their essays interviews and statements invite consideration of the shifting contexts values and needs through which artwork moves in and out of view At issue are governmental restrictions and discursive effects including erasure and distortion resulting from institutional policies canonical processes and interpretive methods Crucial considerations concerning death violence authoritarianism neo colonialism global capitalism labor immigration race religion sexuality activism social justice disability campus speech and cultural destruction are highlighted The anthology a thought provoking resource for students and scholars in art history museum and cultural studies and creative practices represents a timely and significant contribution to the literature on censorship

Shapeshifters Aimee Meredith Cox, 2015-08-07 In Shapeshifters Aimee Meredith Cox explores how young Black women in a Detroit homeless shelter contest stereotypes critique their status as partial citizens and negotiate poverty racism and gender violence to create and imagine lives for themselves Based on eight years of fieldwork at the Fresh Start shelter Cox shows how the shelter's residents who range in age from fifteen to twenty two employ strategic methods she characterizes as choreography to disrupt the social hierarchies and prescriptive narratives that work to marginalize them Among these are dance and poetry which residents learn in shelter workshops These outlets for performance and self expression Cox shows are key to the residents exercising their agency while their creation of alternative family structures demands a rethinking of notions of care protection and love Cox also uses these young women's experiences to tell larger stories of Detroit's history the Great Migration deindustrialization the politics of respectability and the construction of Black girls and women as social problems With Shapeshifters Cox gives a voice to young Black women who find creative and non normative solutions to the problems that come with being young Black and female in America

The Shape of Power Karen Lemmey, Tobias Wofford, Grace Yasumura, 2024-11-12 A major new survey of American sculpture exploring how it both reflects and redefines concepts of race and identity in the United States How does American sculpture intersect with the history of race in the United States The three dimensional qualities of sculpture give it a distinct advantage over other art forms in capturing a subject's likeness and our minds can swiftly conjure a body and racialize it from the most minimal of prompts. The Shape of Power examines the role of American sculpture from the nineteenth century to today in understanding and constructing the concept of race in the United States and how this medium has shaped the way generations have learned to visualize and think about race. Exploring the relationship between sculpture and ideas about race in the United States, this book provides fresh perspectives on artists ranging from Hiram Powers, Edmonia Lewis, and Augusta Savage to Barbara Chase Riboud, Titus Kaphar, Raven Halfmoon, Sanford Biggers, Betye Saar, Yolanda Lopez, and Simone Leigh. It reveals how sculptors use this versatile medium to challenge discriminatory ideologies and entrenched social and cultural constructions of race while offering bold new visions of community, identity, and selfhood. Featuring superb illustrations of sculptural works in a broad range of media, The Shape of Power contributes new scholarship to the understudied field of American sculpture, which hasn't been the subject of a major publication survey in more than fifty years. Published in association with the Smithsonian American Art Museum, Washington, DC. Exhibition Schedule: Smithsonian American Art Museum, Washington, DC, November 8, 2024–September 14, 2025.
