Citizen Islam The Future Of Muslim Integration In The West:

Citizen Islam Zeyno Baran, 2011-07-21 Since September 11 Western governments have legitimized and empowered nonviolent Islamists as representatives of Islam for all Muslims in the West an approach that has worried Muslim moderates Citizen Islam addresses the implications of this approach The book opens with an overview of the theology and history of Islam to show that violence and intolerance are not fundamental aspects of the religion It then explains the growth of Islamism in Europe and in the United States before suggesting that both are finally beginning to recognize the threat posed by nonviolent Islamists Lastly it outlines steps that Western and Muslim leaders can take to strengthen moderate Islam and counter the threat of Islamism Written by Zeyno Baran a Turkish born Muslim Citizen Islam sheds a sharp light on Muslim communities in the West It concludes that there is much that Western governments can still do to reverse the spread of Islamism But they must act quickly

Muslim Integration Erich Kolig, Malcolm Joyce, 2016-10-24 In Muslim Integration Pluralism and Multiculturalism in New Zealand and Australia contributors from a range of backgrounds investigate the state of Muslim integration in New Zealand and Australia The growing presence of a Muslim minority has invited these two Pacific settler states to closely consider the question of Muslim integration into Western society This collection discusses the future of religious cultural pluralism multicultural policies and the growing demands for greater emphasis on assimilation Contributors examine issues such as parallel societies Islamophobia radicalization tolerance adaptation and mutual adjustment legal pluralism the role of mosque architecture and media depictions of Muslims are examined Recommended for scholars of anthropology religious studies sociology and political science

Migration and the Crisis of the Modern Nation State? Frank Jacob, Adam Luedtke, 2018-01-15 The anthology explores the interrelationship between migration and a supposedly existent crisis of the modern nation state The argument of such a crisis is mainly used by the New Right to stimulate nationalist feelings and provoke hate and aggression We in contrast to this perception argue that from a historical and current perspective migration is not endangering the nation state but rather changing the idea of a nation itself by redefining it In historical as well as current case studies the authors determine the political dangers of right wing demagogues while emphasizing the chances immigration is offering the progress of the nation state While it will be discussed how nationalism is impacting on the perception of migration we also want to emphasize how it is perceived by the people in the specific regions which are either confronted with migration or those which are not The authors for the volume come from different fields namely history and political sciences and are consequently able to offer the reader a broad insight into the historical roots and the current consequences nationalism had or has on the perception and the local as well as global policies towards migration The analysis of particular immigrant groups e.g. North Koreans in post war Korea South Asians in the Emirates Middle Eastern refugees in Europe Hispanics in the United States as well as a close reading of crisis related media newspapers and other media in Europe and the US will all in all establish a broad perspective due to which the reader will be able to compare and connect the national events to a larger global picture Islamism and Cultural Expression in the Arab World Abir Hamdar, Lindsey Moore, 2015-04-10 Whereas most studies of Islamism focus on politics and religious ideology this book analyses the ways in which Islamism in the Arab world is defined reflected transmitted and contested in a variety of creative and other cultural forms It covers a range of contexts of production and reception from the early twentieth century to the present and with reference to cultural production in and or about Morocco Algeria Tunisia Egypt Yemen the Gulf Lebanon and Israel Palestine The material engaged with is produced in Arabic English and French and includes fiction autobiography feature films television series television reportage the press rap music and video games Throughout the book highlights the multiple forms and contested interpretations of Islamism in the Arab world exploring trends and tensions in the ways Islamism is represented to primarily Arab audiences and complicating simplistic perspectives on this phenomenon The book considers repeated and idiosyncratic themes modes of characterisation motifs structures of feeling and forms of engagement in the context of an ongoing struggle for symbolic power in the region After-Mission, Beyond Evangelicalism Najib George Awad, 2020-11-04 After Mission touches on on three questions The first question is about self perception and identity formation strategies and the various views that we have on the Protestants relation to their Arab Muslim Middle Eastern context This will furnish the basis for the ensuing parts as it will provide the study with coherent and analytical readings of the cultural situation and intellectual views of the Arab Eastern Protestants in their Sitz im Leben from the perspective of the hermeneutic tripod of identity othering relationality The second question about the theological dimension asks what kind of a theological discourse do the Protestants need to develop and how do they need to re form their own theological heritage in such a manner that will allow them to heal the historical enmity and suspicion towards them from the Eastern Orthodox Christian community in the region How should they re think their traditional view on theological subjects common to them and the Eastern Christian tradition Traditional Protestant attitudes towards Eastern Christianity which have been viewed through the lens of evangelicalism and mission have failed to grant the Protestants an influential and truly indigenous presence in the region and have led to them being constantly accused of being a foreign transplant and alien entity In the light of this it is clear that going beyond missiology and traditional evangelicalism demands re thinking certain mutually shared but contentious theological subjects from a new perspective with the focus on more constructive attempts to build fellowship through dialogue Finally the third question touches on the Protestants future in the Arab Muslim Middle East by viewing this inquiry from a broader perspective that is related to all the Middle Eastern Christian communities presence and role in the Muslim majority context It will discuss questions about the kind of presence and role that Christians Protestants included should hope to play in order to guarantee survival and a continuing presence in the region The question of identity formation and the managing of difference without trapping it in the mud of otherizing and self otherizing will also be tackled so that the theological dimension is integrated with the broader multifaceted contextual one Muslim Citizens in the West Samina Yasmeen, Nina Markovic, 2016-04-29 Drawing upon original case studies spanning North America Europe and Australia Muslim Citizens in the West explores how Muslims have been both the excluded and the excluders within the wider societies in which they live The book extends debates on the inclusion and exclusion of Muslim minorities beyond ideas of marginalisation to show that while there have undoubtedly been increased incidences of Islamophobia since September 2001 some Muslim groups have played their own part in separating themselves from the wider society The cases examined show how these tendencies span geographical ethnic and gender divides and can be encouraged by a combination of international and national developments prompting some groups to identify wider society as the other Muslim and non Muslim scholars and practitioners in political science social work history and law also highlight positive outcomes in terms of Muslim activism with relationship to their respective countries and suggest ways in which increasing tensions felt perceived or assumed can be eased and greater emphasis given to the role Muslims can play in shaping their place in the wider communities where they live Western Muslims and the Future of Islam Tariq Ramadan, 2003-11-27 Tariq Ramadan one of Europe's leading thinkers and one of Islam's most innovative and important voices explores in this volume what it means to be a Western Muslim addressing a topic that is vitally important to the futures of both Islam and the West Ramadan claims that a silent revolution is sweeping Islamic communities in the West as Muslims actively seek ways to live in harmony with their faith within a Western context French English German and American Muslims women as well as men are reshaping their religion into one that is faithful to the principles of Islam dressed in European and American cultures and definitively rooted in Western societies Pilgrimage and Tourism to Holy Cities Maria Leppakari, Kevin A Griffin, 2016-11-30 This book covers the ideological motives and religious perceptions behind travel to sites prescribed with sanctity in Judaism Christianity and Islam It covers sites that have drawn pilgrims and religious tourists to them for hundreds of years and seeks to provide an understanding of the complex world of religiously motivated travel Beginning with contemporary perspectives of pilgrimage across these religions it then discusses management aspects such as logistics infrastructure malevolent behaviour and evangelical volunteers Written by subject experts this book addresses cultural sustainability for researchers and practitioners within religious tourism religious studies geography and anthropology Mass Religious Ritual and Intergroup Tolerance Mikhail A. Alexseev, 2017-07-14 This book develops a new theory of the conditions under which in group pride can facilitate out group tolerance The Muslim Question in Europe Peter O'Brien, 2016-02-29 In this book the author argues that the vehement controversies surrounding European Muslims are better understood as persistent unresolved intra European political tensions rather than as a clash between Islam and the West This title was made Open Access by libraries from around the world through Knowledge Unlatched
