Co Creating A Feminist Vision Of Ministry:

Co-creating Lynn N. Rhodes,1987-01-01 Examines the opinions of feminist theologians and practicing clergywomen discusses the questions of authority salvation mission and vocation and argues that the Church must change to be just

Hermeneutics and Empirical Research in Practical Theology Chris Hermans,Mary Moore,2021-09-20 There is a growing consensus among scholars in different countries about the object of practical theology Hans van der Ven has contributed much to this consensus through his writings on the foundations of practical theology the empirical paradigm within practical theology and specific subdisciplines within practical theology especially religious education moral education church development and ministry At the center of this growing consensus is an understanding of the independent hermeneutical role of religious experiences and practices of people in the process of theological theory building If contemporary religious experiences and practices have a critical role with regard to religious tradition and the ministry of this tradition then practical theology cannot just be a form of applied theology The contributors of this volume focus on this hermeneutical core foundations of practical theology and on empirical research as a research method within practical theology in the work of Van der Ven Ethics and Spiritual Care Karen Lebacqz,Joseph Driskill,2010-10-01 Ethics and Spiritual Care responds to three phenomena of increasing importance Although spiritual care is at the heart of ordained ministry there is no text in professional ethics for clergy that focuses specifically on spiritual care What ethical guidelines are needed to ensure that spiritual care in ministry is appropriate Many people in our world do not consider themselves religious but use the term spiritual The burgeoning interest in spirituality is an invitation to people with little training to set themselves up as spiritual directors Guidelines are needed not simply for the ethical practice of parish ministry but for specific practices of spiritual direction Allegations of spiritual abuse have been made both in practice and in the literature the term is being used with some frequency The development of this term and its implications requires some scrutiny and response as sexual abuse is not a good model for understanding spiritual abuse The Presbyterian Predicament Milton J. Coalter,John M. Mulder,Louis Weeks,1990-01-01 In this volume six prominent writers from different disciplines strive to analyze the Presbyterian predicament and to offer solutions The authors each approach this theme from a different angle resulting in a varied and highly informative look at the state of the Presbyterian Church Through its examination of American Presbyterianism the Presbyterian Presence series illuminates patterns of change in mainstream Protestantism and American religious and cultural life in the twentieth century Clergy Ethics in a Changing Society James P. Wind,1991-01-01 Drawing upon the experiences and insights of a diverse group of notable contributors this volume is perhaps the most complete study available on clergy ethics The topics discussed include the separation of church and state clergy professionalization ethical pastoral care and many more Practice what You Preach James F. Walking with the Mud Flower Collective Stina Busman Jost, 2014 Arguing for a retrieval of the landmark work God's Fierce Whimsy the author establishes the critical importance of this volume for the construction of a dialogic theological method Finally the author constructively engages various developments in feminist theologies and postcolonial theories I Have Called You Friends Kevin Thew Forrester, 2003 I do not call you servants any longer because the servant does not know what the master is doing but I have called you friends because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my father John 15:15 These words of Jesus to his disciples teach that the mutuality of friendship is at the heart of a Christian community When baptized into that community we accept this mutuality and desire to serve others Kevin Thew Forrester says We can go so far as to say that to be a member of the community entails being a minister Baptism and ministry are two sides of the same coin This ministry is the responsibility of all baptized members of the church not merely the ordained Drawing on experiences of the people in the Episcopal Diocese of Northern Michigan the author challenges the whole church to seek this mutual ministry as the key to its future health and mission This book coordinates with the LifeCycles program from LeaderResources Growing in Authority, Relinquishing Control Celia Allison Hahn, 1994-06-01 Contents include I What is authority and Where do you get it II Patterns of Growth in Authority III Practical Dilemmas in the Exercise of Authority IV Authority in Different Voices V The Paradoxical Authority of Laity and Clergy VI Growing in Authority Being the Church Adulthood, Morality, and the Fully Human John J. Shea, 2018-05-07 In Adulthood Morality and the Fully Human John J Shea describes an adult moral and fully human self in terms of integrity and mutuality

Those who are fully human are caring and just Violence is the absence of care and justice Peace the pinnacle of human development is their embodiment Integrity and mutuality together beget care and justice and care and justice together beget peace Shea shows the practical importance of the fully human self for education psychotherapy and spirituality This book is especially recommended for scholars and those in helping professions
