Cinema In Turkey A New Critical History:

Cinema in Turkey Savaş Arslan, 2011 With over six thousand films Turkey has produced more films than any other country in the Middle East or the Balkans Despite its prolific and popular nature this national film industry has often been denigrated as imitative simplistic and underdeveloped Taking up precisely these critiques Cinema in Turkey provides a critical history of feature cinema in Turkey considering how this cinema developed modes of communication reflective of both existing traditions and region specific responses to modernization and nation building Focusing on both popular films and art cinema this study deals with the history of cinema in Turkey including not only its high point during the golden age of Yesilcam as Turkey's popular film industry of the 1960s and 1970s is known but also its early years and its current revival the New Cinema of Turkey This book not only provides the first comprehensive history of Turkish cinema in English but also attempts to introduce a contemporary film theoretical perspective to the examination of Turkish cinema viewing it in a broader framework that goes beyond the canonical concerns of existing film histories and their art and auteur cinema related perspectives

Kurdish Documentary Cinema in Turkey Suncem Kocer, Can Candan, 2016-12-14 Without a doubt this decade's most discussed and developed documentary productions in Turkey come from Kurdistan a name that provokes nationalist panic in Turkey yet delineates distinct cultural linguistic and political boundaries nonetheless Documentary film productions by Kurdish filmmakers from Turkey determine the major tendencies of this emergent genre with such productions offering a unique opportunity for a nuanced understanding of national cinema The larger body of films fiction and non fiction termed as Kurdish cinema complicates the category of national cinema a concept discussed heatedly within the field of cinema studies Documentary film is proving to be a particularly complex tool for the Kurdish social and political existence as Kurds lack the official tools of history writing and cultural preservation that are categorically associated with the capacities of a state By delving into Kurdish documentary films as products of complex societal political and historical processes the articles in the volume highlight the intersections of media production film text and audience reception and expand on vibrant debates in the field of film and media studies through situated case studies Bringing these chapters together this book will stimulate academic discussion around this emergent and lively genre of documentary film production and encourage further research and publication

Women and Turkish Cinema Eylem Atakav, 2013 Since 2000 there has been a considerable effort in Turkish cinema to come to terms with the military's intervention in politics and subsequent national trauma It has resulted in an outpouring of cinematic texts This book focuses on women and Turkish cinema in the context of gender politics cultural identity and representation The central proposition of this book is that enforced depoliticisation introduced after the coup is responsible for uniting feminism and film in 1980s Turkey The feminist movement was able to flourish precisely because it was not perceived as political or politically significant In a parallel move in the films of the 1980s there was an increased tendency to focus on the individual on women's issues and lives in order to avoid the overtly political Women and Turkish

Cinema provides a comprehensive view of cinema's approach to women in a country which straddles European and Middle Eastern cultural conceptions identities and religious values and will be an invaluable resource for students and scholars of Film Studies Gender Studies and Middle East Studies amongst others

The Routledge Handbook of Modern Turkey Metin Heper, Sabri Sayari, 2013-05-07 In recent years there has been growing interest in Turkey stemming from the country's developing role in regional and global politics its expanding economic strength and its identity as a predominantly Muslim country with secular political institutions and democratic processes This Handbook provides a comprehensive and wide ranging profile of modern Turkey Bringing together original contributions from leading scholars with a wide range of backgrounds this important reference work gives a unique in depth survey of Turkish affairs past and present Thematically organised sections cover Turkish history from the early Ottoman period to the present Turkish culture Politics and international relations Social issues Geography The Turkish economy and economics Presenting diverse and often competing views on all aspects of Turkish history politics society culture geography and economics this handbook will be an essential reference tool for students and scholars of Middle East studies comparative politics and culture and society

Precarity in European Film Elisa Cuter, Guido Kirsten, Hanna Prenzel, 2022-06-06 This volume brings together renowned scholars and early career researchers in mapping the ways in which European cinema whether arthouse or mainstream fictional or documentary working with traditional or new media engages with phenomena of precarity poverty and social exclusion It compares how the filmic traditions of different countries reflect the socioeconomic conditions associated with precarity and illuminates similarities in the iconography of precarious lives across cultures While some of the contributions deal with the representations of marginalized minorities others focus on work related precarity or the depictions of downward mobility Among other topics the volume looks at how films grapple with gender inequality intersectional struggle discriminatory housing policies and the specific problems of precarious youth With its comparative approach to filmic representations of European precarity this volume makes a major contribution to scholarship on precarity and the representation of social class in contemporary visual culture Watch our talk with the editors Elisa Cuter Guido Kirsten and Hanna Prenzel here <https://youtu.be/lKpD1NFAX2o>

Head-On (Gegen die Wand) Daniela Berghahn, 2019-07-25 When Head On Gegen die Wand 2004 won the Golden Bear at the Berlin International Film Festival it was hailed as a turning point for German cinema Not only was this unconventional love story the first German film in eighteen years to win the prestigious award but the success of writer director Fatih Akin was also celebrated as the revival of German auteur cinema Meanwhile Turkey claimed Akin as its own prodigal son and his film a victory for Turkish cinema Daniela Berghahn provides a detailed and entertaining account of the film's artistic inspirations its production history and the debates that surrounded it in the German and Turkish press Arguing that much of the media discourse on Turkish German identity politics detracted from Akin's remarkable artistic achievement Berghahn instead situates Head On in the critical contexts of global art cinema and transnational melodrama This comparative approach excavates new layers of meaning and offers highly original insights into Akin's landmark film

Return of the Western Sue Matheson, 2025 Transmitting the crisis that Frederick Jackson Turner and Theodore Roosevelt feared when the frontier closed the Western has returned to reveal a cultural watershed at work in twenty-first century America revitalized with horror terror and the peccant Darkened and dystopic contemporary Westerns point to a national bankruptcy upending the notion that regenerative civilizing impulses direct nation building Exploring films like Open Range 2003 Yah i Bat 2010 The Keeping Room 2015 Little Woods 2018 and First Cow 2019 as well as television series like Justified 2010-2015 Longmire 2012-2017 Westworld 2016-2022 and Yellowstone 2020 this thought provoking collection examines re-constituted masculinities feminine re-fashioning and new directions in Western filmmaking Covering a wide range of aesthetic and thematic concerns Return of the Western Refracting Genre Representing Gender in the Twenty-First Century reminds us how deeply this versatile genre is grounded in the American psyche Ecomedia Stephen Rust, Salma Monani, Sean Cubitt, 2015-09-07 Ecomedia Key Issues is a comprehensive textbook introducing the burgeoning field of ecomedia studies to provide an overview of the interface between environmental issues and the media globally Linking the world of media production distribution and consumption to environmental understandings the book addresses ecological meanings encoded in media texts the environmental impacts of media production and the relationships between media and cultural perceptions of the environment Each chapter introduces a distinct type of media addressing it in a theoretical overview before engaging with specific case studies In this way the book provides an accessible introduction to each form of media as well as a sophisticated analysis of relevant cases The book includes contributions from a combination of new voices and well-established media scholars from across the globe who examine the basic concepts and key issues of ecomedia studies The concepts of frames flow and convergence structure a dynamic collection divided into three parts The first part addresses traditional visual texts such as comics photography and film The second part of the book addresses traditional broadcast media such as radio and television and the third part looks at new media such as advertising video games the internet and digital renderings of scientific data In its breadth and scope Ecomedia Key Issues presents a unique survey of rich scholarship at the confluence of Media Studies and Environmental Studies The book is written in an engaging and accessible style with each chapter including case studies discussion questions and suggestions for further reading The City on Screen: Modern Strangers of Cinematic Istanbul Sertac Timur Demir, 2024-01-02 The City on Screen Modern Strangers of Cinematic Istanbul attempts to analyze how Istanbul is captured through the projector in other words the ontological relationship between city and film and how it is elaborated within the context of Istanbul and the sense of strangerhood This book shifts the axis of Istanbul typically known as a touristic city to its underlying details through the strangers in the modern city Five different films set in this region are analyzed in the text that help to reveal and clarify the socio-urban life of modern Istanbul The characters and stories in these films tell how Istanbul has socially and architecturally become a city of strangers The films analyzed include A Touch of Spice 2004 Men on the Bridge 2009 A Run for Money 1999 Distant 2002 and 10 to 11 2009 The theoretical framework of this book is based on the works of Georg Simmel Zygmunt Bauman and Richard Sennett These three thinkers have all attempted to look for answers to the sociological question of strangerhood in urban living This book accomplishes this connection by discussing the similarities and differences between each of their theories regarding the city cinema and strangerhood

Social Trauma and Telecinematic Memory Pelin Başcı, 2017-10-24 This book explores responses to authoritarianism in Turkish society through popular culture by examining feature films and television serials produced between 1980 and 2010 about the 1980 coup Envisioned as an interdisciplinary study in cultural studies rather than a disciplinary work on cinema the book advocates for an understanding of popular culture in discerning emerging narratives of nationhood Through feature films and television serials directly dealing with the coup of 1980 the book exposes tropes and discursive continuities such as childhood and the child It argues that these conventional tropes enable popular debates on the modern nation s history and its myths of identity
